GOVERNMENT OF JAMMU AND KASHMIR
CIVIL SECRETARIAT LAW DEPARTMENT

Jammu, the 20th November, 2000.

The following Act as passed by the Jammu and Kashmir State Legislature received the assent of the Governor on 14th November, 2000 and is hereby published for general information :-

THE JAMMU AND KASHMIR MUNICIPAL ACT, 2000

Act No. XX of 2000

[14th November, 2000]

An Act to consolidate, amend and replace the law relating to municipalities in Jammu and Kashmir.

Be it enacted by the Jammu and Kashmir State Legislature in the Fifty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

CHAPTER-I

Preliminary

1. Short title, extent and commencement – (1) This Act may be called the Jammu and Kashmir Municipal Act, 2000.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions – In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(1) “annual value” notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, means—

(a) in the case of land, the gross annual rent :—

(i) to be calculated on the basis of fair rent fixed under the law relating to rent restriction for the time being in force; or

(ii) where no fair rent referred to in item (i) is fixed, at which it is expected to be let or it is actually let, whichever is greater :

Provided that, in the case of land assessed to land revenue or any other tax in lieu thereof or of which the land revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned, the annual value shall, if the Government so directs, be deemed to be double the aggregate of the following amounts, namely :—

(i) the amount of the land revenue or any other tax in lieu thereof for the time being assessed on the land, whether such assessment is leviable or not, or when the land revenue has been wholly or in part compounded for or redeemed, the amount which, but for such composition or redemption, would have been leviable ; and

(ii) when the improvement of the land due to canal irrigation has been excluded from account in assessing the land revenue, the amount of owner's rate or water advantage rate, or other rate imposed in respect of such improvement ;

- (b) in the case of any house or building, together with its appurtenances or any furniture that may be let for use and enjoyment therewith, is let subject to the following deductions :-
- (i) a deduction not exceeding ten per centum of the gross annual rent as the municipality in each particular case may consider a reasonable allowance on account of the furniture let therewith ;
 - (ii) a deduction of ten per centum for the cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building in a State to command such gross annual rent. The deduction under this sub-clause shall be calculated on the balance of the gross annual rent after the deduction, if any, under item (i) ;
 - (iii) where land is let with a building, such deduction, not exceeding the per centum of the gross annual rent, as the municipality in each particular case may consider reasonable on account of the actual expenditure, if any, annually incurred by the owner on the maintenance of the land, in a state to command such gross annual rent.

Explanation-I. For the purpose of this clause it is immaterial whether the house or building, and the furniture and the land let for use or enjoyment therewith, are let by the same contract or by different contracts, whether such contracts are made simultaneously or at different times.

Explanation-II. The term "gross annual rent" shall not include any tax payable by the owner in respect of which the owner and the tenant have agreed that it shall be paid by the tenant ;

- (c) where the gross annual rent of any land or building cannot be determined under clause (a) or clause (b)-
- (i) in the case of land, ten percent of the cost of land ; and
 - (ii) in the case of building ten percent of the sum of the cost of erection of the building and the cost of land :

Provided that in the calculation of the rateable value of any building ten percent of the rateable value so determined shall be deducted for the cost of the repairs and for all other expenses to maintain the building :

Provided further that where a building is in the occupation of the owner for the purpose of his own residence, the annual value shall first be determined as in clause (c) and further be reduced –

- (i) where covered area of a building under self occupation does not exceed one hundred square meters by full amount so determined; ;
 - (ii) where the covered area of a building, exceeds one hundred square meters, by full amount so determined for the first one hundred square meters and by half of the amount so determined for the area by which it exceeds one hundred square meters ;
- (d) where the gross annual rent of the whole of the land or a building cannot be determined under any of the clause (a), (b) and (c),–
- (i) in relation to that part or portion of such land or building to which clause (a) or (b) applies, as determined under clause (c).
 - (ii) in relation to the remaining part or portion of such land or building, as determined under clause (c).

Explanation.– For the purpose of this clause "Cost of land" and "Cost of erection of the building" shall mean cost of land and/ or cost of erection of building at the time of purchase of such land and/or erection of building, as the case may be.

(ii) grant a lease, not exceeding a period of ten years, of any immovable property belonging to the municipality ; or

(iii) sell or grant a lease in perpetuity of any immovable property belonging to the municipality, the value of which does not exceed one lakh rupees or the annual rent of which does not exceed ten thousand rupees.

(5) The Executive Officer may, with the prior approval of the municipality, sell or grant a lease in respect of properties, amenities and utility raised on loans from the non-Government sources to liquidate the liabilities.

58. Inventory and map of municipal property.—(1) The municipality shall maintain an inventory and a map of all immovable property of which the municipality is proprietor, or which vests in it or which it holds in trust for the Government.

(2) The copies of such inventory and map shall be deposited in the office of the Director and such other officer or authority as the Government may direct and all changes made therein shall forthwith be communicated to the Director or other officer or authority.

59. Erection and maintenance of boundary marks of municipal area.— Every municipality shall cause to be erected and set up and thereafter maintain substantial boundary marks defining the limits or the altered limits of the municipal area subject to its authority as set out in the notification issued under section 4.

60. Management of public institutions.—(1) The management, control and administration of every public institution maintained out of the municipal fund shall vest in the municipality.

(2) When any public institution has been placed under the direction, management and control of the municipality, all property, endowments and funds belonging thereto shall be held by the municipality in trust for the purposes to which such property, endowments and funds were lawfully applicable at the time when the institution was so placed :

Provided that the extent of the independent authority of the municipality in respect of any such institution may be prescribed by the Government :

Provided further that nothing in this section shall be held to prevent the vesting of any trust property in the treasurer of charitable endowments under the Jammu and Kashmir Charitable Endowments Act, Samvat 1989

61. Acquisition of land.— When any land, whether within or outside the limits of municipal area is required for the purposes of this Act, the Government may, at the request of the municipality proceed to acquire it under the provisions of the State Land Acquisition Act, Samvat 1990 and on the payment by municipality of the compensation awarded under that Act, and of any other charges incurred in acquiring the land, the land shall vest in the municipality.

Explanation.— When any land is required for a new street or for the improvement of an existing street, the Government may on the request of the municipality proceed to acquire in addition to the land to be occupied by the street, the land necessary for the sites of the buildings to be erected on both sides of the street, and such land shall be deemed to be required for the purposes of this Act.

62. Transfer to Government property vesting in municipality.— The municipality may, with the sanction of the Government, transfer to the Government any property vesting in the municipality under section 57 or section 60 but not so as to affect any trust or public rights subject to which the property is held.

63. Power to take over management of water works, sewerage works and roads etc.— (1) Whenever the Government is satisfied that the municipality has neglected to perform its duties in respect of maintenance or construction of waterworks, sewerage works or roads and that it is in public interest to take over the management of such water works, sewerage works or roads for a period not exceeding ten years, it may, after giving the municipality, a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed action, make an order to take over the management of water works, sewerage works or roads, as the case may be.

(2) The management of water works, sewerage works or roads, as the case may be, shall revert to the municipality after the expiry of the period for which it was taken over by the Government or earlier than that if deemed expedient by the Government.

(3) It shall be the liability of the municipality to pay the expenses, if any, which may be incurred by the Government as also the liability in respect of the salary and allowances of the persons employed, by the municipality before taking over the management, for and in connection with the maintenance, construction, management and control of the water works, sewerage works or roads.

(4) Whenever, the management of any water works, sewerage works or roads of any municipality is taken over by the Government, the powers, duties and functions of the municipality under this Act in respect of such water works, sewerage works or roads shall be exercised and performed by the Government.

64. Finance Commission.— (1) The Finance Commission when constituted by the Government shall review the financial position of the municipalities and make recommendations to the Government as to—

(a) the principles which should govern—

(i) the distribution between the Government and the municipalities of the net proceeds of taxes, duties, tolls and fees leviable by the State, which may be divided between them and the allocation between the municipalities at all levels of their respective shares of such proceeds ;

(ii) the determination of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees, which may be assigned to, or appropriated by, the municipalities ;

(iii) the grants-in-aid to the municipalities from the Consolidated Fund of the State ;

(b) the measures needed to improve the financial position, of the municipalities; and

(c) any other matter referred to the Finance Commission by the Government in the interest of sound finances of the municipalities.

(2) The Government shall cause every recommendation made by the Finance Commission under this section together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon to be laid before the Legislature of the State.

CHAPTER- VI

(2) The rates of any tax, toll or fee under sub-section (1) except that under clause (viii) thereof shall be determined by the municipality :

Provided that such rates shall not exceed the maximum limits, which, the State Government may from time to time, by notification, specify in this behalf.

67. Limitation of taxing powers.— Nothing contained in sections 65 and 66 shall authorise a municipality to levy any tax, toll or fee, which the State Legislature has no power to impose in the State under the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir.

Provided that any tax, toll or fee, which immediately before the commencement of the Constitution of India was lawfully being levied in any municipal area, may continue to be so levied until provision to the contrary is made by Parliament by law.

Explanation :— In the section 'tax' includes any duty or cess.

68. Procedure regarding taxes under section 65.—(1) A municipality, at a special meeting, shall pass a resolution, within a period of thirty days from the date of publication of notification under section 65, directing the imposition of tax with effect from the date to be fixed in the resolution and if the municipality fails to pass such a resolution within the aforesaid period, the resolution in this behalf shall be deemed to have been passed by the municipality on the expiry of the period of said thirty days.

(2) After the resolution is passed or deemed to have been passed under sub-section (1) the State Government shall notify in the Government Gazette the imposition of the tax from the appointed date.

69. Collection and payment of tax on consumption of electricity.—

(1) The tax on consumption of electricity referred to in clause (viii) of sub-section (1) of section 66 shall be collected by the Power Development Department or by any other person, as the case may be, supplying electricity for consumption in municipal limits and paid to the municipality concerned:

Provided that where any person generates electricity for his own use or consumption, it shall be paid by such person.

(2) Such tax shall be collected and paid in the manner, as may be prescribed by Government under rules.

(3) Such tax shall not be leviable on the consumption of electricity by the Government of India or where it is consumed in the construction, maintenance or operation of any railway by the Government of India.

70. Procedure to impose taxes under section 66.—(1) A municipality may, at a special meeting, pass a resolution to propose the imposition of any tax under section 66.

(2) When such a resolution has been passed, the municipality shall publish a notice, specifying the class of persons or description of property proposed to be taxed, the amount or rate of the tax to be imposed, and the system of assessment to be adopted.

(3) Any inhabitant objecting to the proposed tax may, within thirty days from the publication of the said notice, submit his objection in writing to the municipality, and the municipality shall at special meeting take his objection into consideration.

(4) If the municipality decides to amend its proposals or any of them, it shall publish amended proposals, along with a notice indicating that they are in modification of those previously published for objection,

(5) Any objections to the amended proposals, which may be received within thirty days of their publication shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in sub-section (3).

(6) When the municipality has finally settled its proposals, it shall, if the proposed tax falls under clause (i) to clause (xvi) of sub-section (1) of section 66, direct that the tax be imposed, and shall forward a copy of its order to that effect, to the Deputy Commissioner, Director and the Government.

(7) If the proposed tax falls under clauses (xvii) to (xix) of sub-section (1) of section 66, the Deputy Commissioner shall submit the proposals and objections with his recommendations through the Director to the Government.

(8) The Government on receiving proposals for taxation under sub-section (7) may sanction or refuse to sanction the same or return them to the municipality for further consideration.

(9) When—

(a) a copy of order under sub-sections (6) and (7) has been received

(b) a proposal has been sanctioned under sub-section (8), the State Government shall notify the imposition of the tax in accordance with such order or proposal, and shall in the notification specify a date not less than one month from the date of the notification, on which the tax shall come into force.

(10) A tax leviable by the year shall come into force on the first day of January or on the first day of April or on the first day of July or on the first day of October in any year, if it comes into force on any other day then the first day, of the year by which it is leviable shall be leviable by the quarter till the first day of such year then next ensuing.

(11) A notification of the imposition of a tax under this Act shall be conclusive evidence that the tax has been imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

71. Power of Government in respect of taxation.—(1) The Government, may, by special or general order notified in the Government Gazette, require a municipality to impose any tax, mentioned in section 66 not already imposed, at such rate and within such period as may be specified in the notification and the municipality shall thereupon act accordingly.

(2) The Government may require a municipality to modify the rate of any tax already imposed and thereupon the municipality shall modify the tax, as required within such period, as the Government may direct

(3) If the municipality fails to carry out any order passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the Government may, by a suitable order notified in the Official Gazette, impose or modify the tax. The order passed shall operate, as if it were a resolution duly passed by the municipality and as if the proposal was sanctioned in accordance with the procedure contained in Section 70.

72. Preparation of assessment list— The municipality shall cause an assessment list of all buildings and lands on which any tax is imposed to be prepared, containing—

- (a) the name of the street or division in which the property is situated;
- (b) the description of the property, either by name or by number sufficient for identification;
- (c) the names of the owner and occupier, if known;
- (d) the annual value; and
- (e) the amount of the tax assessed thereon by the municipality

73 Publication and completion of assessment lists— When the assessment list has been completed, the municipality shall give public notice thereof and of the place, where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected; and every person claiming to be either owner or occupier of property included in the list, and any authorised agent of such shall be at liberty to inspect the list and to make extracts therefrom without charge.

74 Public notice of time fixed for revising lists — (1) The municipality shall at the time of the publication of such assessment list give public notice of a time, not less than one month thereafter, when it will proceed to revise the valuation and assessment, and in all cases in which any property for the first time assessed, or the assessment thereof is increased, it shall give a specific notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the property.

(2) All objections to the valuation and assessment shall be made in writing before the time fixed in the notice, or orally or in writing at that time.

75. Settlement of list.— (1) After the objections have been enquired into and the persons making them have been allowed an opportunity of being heard either in person or by authorised agent, as they may think fit, and the revision of the valuation and assessment has been completed, the amendments made in the list shall be authenticated by the signatures of not less than two members of the municipality, who shall at the same time certify that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment contained in the list, except in the cases in which amendments have been entered therein; and, subject to such amendments as may thereafter be duly made, the tax so assessed shall be deemed to be the tax for the year commencing on first day of April of the year in which notice was issued under section 73 or section 74 of this Act:

Provided that this date will not be earlier to the date on which the building comes into existence.

(2) The list, when amended under this section shall be deposited in the office of the municipality and the same shall be kept open for inspection during office hours to all owners or occupiers of property comprised therein or the authorised agents of such persons, and a public notice that it is so open shall forthwith be published.

76. Further amendments of assessment list.—(1) The municipality may at any time amend the list by inserting the name of any person whose name ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by inserting any property which ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by altering the assessment on any property, which has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, whether on the part of the municipality or of the assessee, or in the case of a tax payable by the occupier by a change in the tenancy, after giving notice to any person affected by the amendment, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service, at which the amendment is to be made.

(2) Any person interested in any such amendment may tender his objection to the municipality in writing before the time fixed in the notice, or orally or in writing at that time, and shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard in support of the same in person, or by authorised agent, as he may think fit.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the municipality may with a view to give effect to the annual value as defined in clause (1) of section 2 of this Act, amend the assessment list of the year commencing on the first day of April of the relevant year for increasing or reducing annual value of any property and of the assessment thereupon after giving notice at any time to any person affected by the amendment of a period not less than one month from the date of service at which the amendment is to be made and the municipality shall consider any objection made in this regard by any such person and the amended assessment list shall come into force with effect from the first day of April of the year in which notice was given to the person affected.

77. New list need not to be prepared every year.—It shall be in the discretion of the municipality to prepare for the whole or any part of the municipal area a new assessment list every year or to adopt the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year; with such alterations, as may in particular cases be deemed necessary, as the valuation and assessment for the year, giving to persons affected by such alterations the same notice of the valuation and assessment, as if a new assessment list had been prepared :

Provided that the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year shall not be adopted for a period exceeding five years.

78. Tax not invalid for defect of form—No assessment and no charge or demand of any tax made under the authority of this Act shall be impeached or affected by reason of any mistake in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of any person liable to pay the tax, or of any mistake in the amount of assessment or tax, or by reason, of any clerical error or other defect of form ; and it shall be enough in respect of any such tax on property or any assessment of value for the purpose of any such tax if the property taxed or assessed is so described as to be generally known ; and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof. ,

79. Power of municipality to exempt. payment of taxes (1) A municipality may exempt, in whole or in part, for any period not exceeding one year, from the payment of any such tax, any person, who by reason of poverty, may in its opinion be unable to pay the same, and may renew such exemption as often as may be necessary.

(2) A municipality, by a resolution passed at a special meeting and confirmed by the Government, may—

(a) provide that an or any persons may be allowed to compound for taxes imposed under section 65, under clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi), (xiv), (xv), (xvi) and (xix) of sub-section (1) of section 66 and under section 67 ;

(b) abolish, suspend or reduce in amount any tax imposed under section 65, 66 and 67 ;

(c) exempt in whole or in part from the payment of any such tax, any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

80. Power of Government to exempt payment of taxes.—(1) The Government may by order exempt in whole or in part from the payment of any such tax by any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

(2) If, at any time, it appears to the Government on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax imposed under the foregoing sections is unfair in its incidence or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interests of the general public, it may require the municipality to take within a specified period measures to remove the objections ; and, if within that period the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of the Government, may, by notification, suspend the levy of the tax or of such part thereof until the objection has been removed.

81. Remission tax unoccupied immovable property.—(1) When any property assessed to a tax under clause (a) of section 65 which is payable by the year or by instalments, has remained unoccupied and unproductive of rent throughout the year or the period in respect of which any instalment is payable, the municipality shall remit the amount of the tax or of the instalment, as the case may be :

Provided that no such remission shall be granted unless notice in writing of the circumstances under which it is claimed has been given to the municipality within the first month after the expiry of the period in respect of which it is so claimed.

(2) When any such property as aforesaid—

(a) has not been occupied or productive of rent for any period of not less than sixty consecutive days; or

(b) consists of separate tenements, one or more of which has or have not been occupied or productive of rent for any such period as aforesaid; or the municipality may remit such portion, if any, of the tax or instalment, as it may think equitable.

(c) is wholly or in greater part demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise;

(3) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to claim relief under this section shall lie upon him.

(4) For the purposes of this section neither the presence of a caretaker nor the mere retention in otherwise unoccupied dwelling house of the furniture habitually used in it shall constitute occupation of the house.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a house shall be deemed to be productive of rent, if let to a tenant, who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether it is actually occupied by such tenant or not.

(6) The enquiry necessary for a decision whether any relief should be granted under this section shall be held by the Executive Officer or the Secretary, who shall make such recommendation to the municipality, as he may deem proper :

Provided that the municipality shall not grant any remission of tax unless such remission is recommended by the Executive Officer or the Secretary.

82. Duty to furnish information – (1) Every person shall on the demand of any officer duly authorised by the municipality in this behalf furnish such information as may be necessary' in order to ascertain, whether such person is liable to pay any municipal tax ; and every hotel lodging house keeper or Secretary of a residential club shall also on demand made as aforesaid furnish a list of all persons residing in such hotel, lodging house or club.

(2) If any person so called upon to furnish such information omits to do so or furnishes information, which is untrue, he shall be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than twenty-five rupees and more than five hundred rupees.

83. Notice on transfers of titles– (1) Whenever the title to or over any building or land of any person, primarily, liable for the payment of property taxes on such property is transferred, the transfer and the transferor shall within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer, if it be registered, or if it be not registered within three months of its execution, or if no instrument be executed, of the actual transfer give notice in writing of such transfer to the municipality.

(2) Every person, primarily, liable for the payment of a tax on any property, who transfers his title or over such property without giving notice of such transfer to the municipality as aforesaid, shall in addition to any other liability, which he incurs through such neglect, continue liable for the payment of all such taxes from time to time payable in respect of the said property until he gives such notice. or until the transfer is recorded in the books of the municipality.

(3) Whenever the title to or over any building or land has devolved upon any person by inheritance the heir shall within three months of the date of the death of the former owner give notice in writing of such inheritance to the municipality.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be held to diminish the liability of the transferee or heir for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the municipality for the recovery of the taxes due thereupon.

(5) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (3) shall in addition to any other penalty which he incurs through such neglect, be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing breach with a further fine of fifty rupees for every day after the first conviction during which the breach continues.

84. Power of entry.— The municipality may authorise any person—

(a) after giving twenty-four hours notice to the occupier, or, if there be no occupier to the owner, of any building, or land, at any time between sunrise and sunset, to enter, inspect and measure any building for the purpose of valuation ;

(b) to enter and inspect any stable, coach-house or other place wherein there is reason to believe that there is any vehicle or animal liable to taxation under this Act or for which a licence has not been duly taken out.

85. Taxes when payable.—Subject to the provisions of section 68, sub-sections (7) and (8) of section 70 and section 75 and tax imposed under this Chapter and payable periodically shall be payable on such dates and in such instalments, if any, as the municipality, with the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, may from time to time direct

86. Recovery of property taxes. — (1) When any sum is due on account of a tax payable under this Act in respect of any property by the owner thereof, the municipality shall cause a bill for the amount, stating the property and the period for which the charge is made to be delivered to the person liable to pay the same.

(2) If the bill be not paid within ten days from the delivery thereof, the municipality may cause a notice of demand to be served on the person liable to pay the same and if he does not, Within seven days from the Service of the notice, pay the sum due, with any fee leviable for the notice or show sufficient cause for non-payment, the sum due, with the fee, shall be deemed to be an arrear of tax.

(3) The amount of every such arrear, besides being recoverable in any other manner provided by this Act shall, subject to any claim on behalf of the Government be a first charge on the property in respect of which it is payable and shall be recoverable on application made in this behalf by the municipality to the Collector, as if the property were an estate assessed to land revenue and the arrear were an arrear of such revenue due thereon.

(4) If any tax or sum leviable under this Act from the owner is recovered from the occupier, such occupier shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to recover the same from the owner and may deduct the same from the rent then or thereafter due by him to the owner.

87. Recovery of taxes.— (1) Any means of any tax, water-rate, rent, fee or any other money claimable by a municipality under this Act may be recovered on application to a magistrate having jurisdiction within the limits of the municipality, or in any other place where the person from whom the money is claimable may for the time being be resident, by the distress and the sale of any moveable property within the limits of his jurisdiction belonging to such person. The cost of such proceedings shall be recoverable from the defaulter in the same manner as the said arrears.

(2) The Government may prescribe the manner in which warrant under sub-section (1) is to be executed and for the summary determination of any claim made by any person other than the defaulter in respect of any property attached in execution of such warrant

(3) An application made under sub-section (1) shall be in writing and shall be signed by the President, the Vice-President, Executive Officer or the Secretary of the Municipality, but it shall not be necessary to present it in person.

88. Seizure and sale of vehicle and animal.— (1) If any person owns or occupies any vehicle or animal in respect of which tax is payable under section 65 or section 66 without having paid the tax and fails to pay the tax due on demand, any officer authorised by the municipality in this behalf may seize and detain such vehicle and animal, if any, by which it is driven or carried, as the case may be.

(2) After such seizure the officer authorised by the municipality in this behalf shall forthwith issue a notice in writing to the owner thereof by registered post that after the expiry of fifteen days from the date of service of the notice he will sell such vehicle or animal or both.

(3) If the animal or vehicle seized be not claimed and tax due thereon be not paid within a period of fifteen days from the date of the seizure the officer authorised under sub-section (1) may direct that the vehicle or the animal or both shall be sold in public auction and the proceeds of sale applied to the payment of—

(a) the tax, if any, due on the vehicle or animal or both;

(b) such penalty not exceeding the amount of the tax as the officer authorised under sub-section (1) may direct; and

(c) all expenses occasioned by such non-payment, seizure, detention and sale.

(4) The surplus sale proceeds, if any, shall be credited to the municipal fund and may be paid on the demand of the owner of vehicle or animal or both or to other person entitled thereto to the satisfaction of the officer authorised under sub-section (1)

Provided that, if at any time before the sale is concluded such person or his authorised agent tenders to the municipality or to the person authorised by it to sell the vehicle or the animal the dues referred to in sub-section (3) the officer authorised under sub-section (1) shall forthwith release the vehicle or animal or, both, so seized.

89 Recovery of dues as arrears of land revenue—(1) Any amount on account of arrears of any tax, water-rate, rent, fee or any other money claimable by a municipality under this Act besides being recoverable in any other manner provided by this Act, may be recovered on an application made in this behalf by the municipality to the Collector, as arrears of land revenue.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Government may, on a request from any municipality or otherwise, appoint a person to exercise the powers of the Collector under the Jammu and Kashmir Land Revenue Act, Samvat 1996, and where the Collector is appointed, an application under the said sub-section shall be made to such Collector.

90. Appeals—(1) An appeal against the assessment or levy of any tax or against the refusal to refund any tax under this Act shall lie to the Deputy Commissioner or to such other officer as may be empowered by the Government in this behalf.

(2) If, on the bearing of an appeal under this section, any question as to the liability to or the principle of assessment of a tax arises on which the officer bearing the appeal entertains reasonable doubt, he may, either of his own motion or on an application of any person interested, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained and refer the statement with his own opinion on the point for the decision of the High Court.

(3) On a reference being made under sub-section (2), the subsequent proceedings in the case shall be, as nearly as may be, in conformity with the provisions relating to references to the High Court contained in section 113 and Order XLVI as the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977.

(4) In every appeal the costs shall be in the discretion of the officer deciding the appeal.

(5) The costs awarded under this section to the municipality shall be recoverable by the municipality as if they were arrears of a tax due from the appellant.

(6) If the municipality fails to pay the cost awarded to an appellant within ten days after the date of the order for payment thereof, the officer awarding the costs may order the person having the custody of the balance of the municipal fund to pay the amount.

91. Limitation for appeal.—(1) No appeal shall lie in respect of a tax on any land or building unless it is preferred within one month after the publication of the notice prescribed by section 75 or section 76 or section 77, or after the date of final order under section 78, as the case may be, and no appeal shall lie in respect of any other tax unless it is preferred within one month from the time, when the demand for the tax is made : Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiration of the period prescribed therefore by this section, if the appellant satisfies the officer before whom the appeal is preferred that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within that period.

(2) No appeal shall be entertained unless the appellant has paid all other municipal taxes due from him to the municipality up to the date of such appeal.

92. Revision.—(1) The Government may call for the record of my valuation or assessment of any tax imposed by the municipality, and if such municipality appears :

- (a) to have exercised a power not vested in it by law; or
- (b) to have failed to exercise other power vested in it; or
- (c) to have acted in the exercise of its power, illegally, or with material irregularity, the Government may make such order in the matter as it thinks fit :

Provided that the Government shall not, under this section vary or reverse any assessment or valuation of any tax imposed by the municipality except where—

(a) the assessment or valuation of a tax, if it has been made in favour of the party applying for the revision, would have, finally, disposed off the matter ; or

(b) the assessment or valuation of a tax, if allowed to stand, would occasion a failure of justice or a cause irreparable injury to the party against whom it was made.

(2) The Government shall not pass any order under sub-section (1) to the prejudice of any person without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

93. Bar to question assessment.— (1) No objection shall be taken to any valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned, in any other manner or by any other authority than is provided in this Act.

(2) No refund of any tax shall be claimable by any person otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

CHAPTER-VIIPolice assistance.

94. Police force.—(1) If the Government is of the opinion that the police force is required by a municipality on whole time basis for a specified period exceeding one month for carrying out the proposes of this Act, it may, on an application made by the municipality through the Deputy Commissioner, in this behalf, provide such police force.

(2) The municipality shall pay the expenses incurred by the Government in respect of the police force provided under sub-section (1).

95. Powers and duties of police.—(1) Every member of police force under this Act shall give immediate information to the municipality of any offence committed against this Act or the rules or bye-laws, and shall be bound to assist all members, and employees of the municipality in the exercise of their lawful authority.

(2) Every member of such police force may arrest any person committing in his view any offence under this Act or the rules or bye-laws—

(a) if the name and address of the person are unknown to him ; and

(b) if the person declines to give his name and address, or if there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the name and address, if given.

(3) A person arrested' under this section may be detained until his name and address have been correctly ascertained :

Provided that no person so arrested shall be detained longer than as may be necessary for bringing him before a Magistrate except under the order of a Magistrate for his detention.

96. Special police assistance affairs etc. — When special police protection is, in the opinion of the Government, required on the occasion of any fair, agricultural show or industrial exhibition, managed by a municipality, or for the purpose of guarding houses evacuated on account of plague, the Government may provide such protection and the municipality shall pay the whole charge thereof or a such portion of such charge as the Government may consider equitably payable by it.

CHAPTER-VIII

Extinction and prevention of fire.

97. Establishment and maintenance of fire brigade.—(1) For the prevention and extinction of fire, the municipality may and, if the Government so directs, shall, establish and maintain a fire-brigade, and provide implements, machinery or means of a communicating intelligence for the efficient discharge of their duties by the brigade.

98. Power of fire brigade and other persons to extinguish.—(1) On the occasion of a fire in a municipal area any Executive Magistrate of the area, or the Executive Officer or any member of municipality, or any member of a fire brigade maintained by the municipality, then and there directing the operations of melt belonging to the brigade, and any police officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector, may —

(a) remove or order the removal of any person who by his presence interferes with or impedes the operations for extinguishing the fire or for saving life or property ;

(b) close any street or passage in or near which any fire is burning ;

(c) for the purpose of extinguishing the fire break into or through or pull down, or cause to be broken into or through or pulled down or use for the passage of houses or other appliances, any premises ;

(d) cause mains and pipes to be shut off so as to give greater pressure of water in or near the place, where the fire has occurred ;

(e) call on the persons incharge of any fire-engine to render such assistance as may be possible ;

(f) generally take such measures as may appear necessary for the preservation of life and property.

When any Government building is endangered by such a fire, the officer of the Public Works Department for the time being incharge of the building may exercise the powers conferred on Executive Magistrate by this sub-section.

(2) No person shall be liable to pay damages for any act done by him under sub-section (1) in good faith.

(3) Any damage done in the exercise of a power conferred or a duty imposed by this section shall be deemed to be damaged by fire within the meaning of any policy of insurance against fire.

99. Observance of rules and regulations. — The power conferred by the last foregoing section shall be subject to such rules and regulations, as may be framed by the Government under any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER-IXWater supply.

100. Provision for water supply.— (1) The municipality may, and when the Government so directs shall, provide the area under the control or any part thereof with a supply of wholesome water sufficient for public and domestic purposes.

(2) For the purpose of providing such supply within the municipal area, the municipality, shall cause such tanks, reservoirs, engines, pipes, taps and other works as may be necessary to be constructed or maintained, whether within or outside the municipal area, and shall erect sufficient standpipes or other conveniences for the gratuitous supply of water to the public.

(3) When required by the Health Officer, the municipality shall arrange for the examination of water supplied for human consumption for the purpose of determining, whether the water is wholesome.

101. Supply of water for domestic purposes.—(1) The municipality may, on application by the owner of any building, arrange for supplying water from the nearest main to the same for domestic purposes in such quantities as it deems reasonable, and may at any time limit the quantity of water to be so supplied, whenever it considers it necessary—

(2) No additional charge shall be payable in respect of such supply in any municipal area in which a water tax is levied, but for water supplied in excess of the quantity to which such supply is under sub-section (1) limited and in other municipal areas for all water supplied under this section payment shall be made at such rate as may be fixed by bye-laws.

Explanation :— A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not be deemed to include a supply :—

- (a) for animals or for washing vehicles, where such animals or vehicles are kept for sale or hire;
- (b) for any trade, manufacture or business ;
- (c) for fountains, swimming, baths or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose ;
- (d) for gardens or for purposes of irrigation ;
- (e) for watering roads and paths ;
- (f) for building purposes.

102. Supply of water for other than domestic purposes.—(1) The municipality may supply water for any purpose other than a domestic purpose, on receiving a written application specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed :

Provided that for building purposes, water supply shall be made for period of one year in the first instance, on an application accompanied by a copy of a building plan duly sanctioned by the competent authority and thereafter be extended, by six months at a time for a period of not exceeding the period allowed for the completion of the construction or for three years, whichever is less :

Provided further that the water supply made, for the building purposes, on or before the commencement of this Act shall continue for a period of three years reckoned from such commencement.

(2) For all water supplied under sub-section (1) payment shall be made at a rate not less than the rate prescribed under sub-section (2) of section 101.

(3) The municipality may withdraw such supply at any time, if it should appear necessary to do so in order to maintain sufficient supply, of water for domestic purposes.

103. Procedure for water connections.—(1) Where an application under section 101 or section 102 has been received, all necessary communication pipes, fittings shall be supplied by the municipality and the work of laying and applying such communication pipes and fittings, shall be executed by municipal agency under the municipality's order; but the cost of making any such connection and of all communication pipes and fittings so supplied and of all works so executed, shall be paid by the owner or the person making such application. The municipality may either provide a meter and charge rent for the same or may require, the owner or applicant to provide a meter of such size, material and description as it shall approve.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), the municipality may require any owner or person applying for supply of water to provide all communication pipes and fittings and to carry out at his own cost under its supervision and inspection all the work of laying and applying such communication pipes and fittings.

104. Obligation of owner or occupier to give notice of waste of water.— Any owner or occupier of any building or land in which water supplied under this Act is misused from negligence or other circumstances under his control, or used without permission in excess of the quantity fixed under section 101 or section 102, or in which the pipes, mains, or other works are out of repair to such an extent as to cause waste of water, shall if he has knowledge thereof, be bound to give notice of the same to such officer as the municipality may appoint in this behalf.

105. Cutting of water supply to premises.— If any person, whose premises are supplied with water, neglects to pay the water-tax, or any sum payable, under section 101 or section 102 when due, or to give notice as provided in the last preceding section, or willfully or negligently misuse or causes waste of water, the municipality may, after due notice, cut off the supply of water from the said premises.

106. Power of municipality in respect of communications etc.— For the purpose of providing or maintaining the water supply or making or maintaining communications or connections with the main, or generally for the purposes of this Chapter, the municipality shall have all powers which are conferred upon it in respect by sections 136 to 141.

107. Power to require owners of buildings to provide the storage reservoirs for rain water on their premises— Whenever it appears to the municipality or the Government to be desirable to require the owners of buildings or lands, situated within the limits of the whole or any part of a municipal area to make suitable provision for the storage and conservation of rain-water for use in flushing drain and for every purpose other than for the purposes of being used as drinking water, such municipality, if so required by the Government, shall and, in any case, may, with the previous sanction of the Government, by public notice, direct accordingly.

(2) Every notice, given under sub-section (1) shall state :—

(a) the extent of the local area within the limits of which the owners of buildings and the lands are to make suitable provision for the storage of rain-water ;

(b) the manner in which the cubic capacity of the storage accommodation to be provided by such owners is to be fixed that is, whether the extent of such capacity is to be regulated by reference to the area of the land, the size of the building, the number of occupants, or the estimated rental value thereof or by any two or more of these methods ;

(c) the design, materials, situation and construction of the reservoirs or other storage accommodation to be provided ;

(d) the mode of collecting, storing, preserving from pollution and in a pure state and using the rain water to be collected and stored; and

(e) the time within which the requirements of the notice are to be complied with.

108. Supervision and inspection of works.— The municipality may, and, if so required by the Government, shall, make provision for the supervision of the construction, and may do all acts and things which may, from time to time, be necessary for the purpose of ensuring—

(a) that the storage reservoirs and other works, as aforesaid, are constructed and carried out, as the case may be, in accordance with the requirements of the notice given under the preceding section ; and

(b) that all such reservoirs and other works are of sufficient strength and durability, and may cause any such reservoirs or any other works as do not comply with the requirement of the notice or are unsuitable or insecure, to be removed and reconstructed or replaced to the satisfaction of the municipality.

109. Repairs of reservoirs.— The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land in respect of which a reservoir for the storage and conservation of rain-water has been provided under section 107 to repair, alter or put in good condition the said reservoir.

CHAPTER-X

Powers for sanitary and other purposes.

110. Bathing and washing places.—(1) The municipality may set apart suitable places for the purpose of bathing and may specify the times at which and sex of the person by whom, such places may be used, and may also set apart suitable places for washing animal or clothes, or for any other purpose connected with the health, cleanliness or comfort of the inhabitants, and may, by public notice, prohibit bathing or washing animals or clothes, in any public place not so set apart, or at time or by person other than those specified, and any other act by which water in public places may be rendered foul or, unfit for use, and may charge fees for the use of such places by any specified class or classes of persons or by the public generally.

(2) The municipality may fix, by notice, places at which articles of clothing, bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection shall be washed, and no person shall wash such article at any place not so fixed.

111. Powers in respect of burial and cremation grounds.—(1) The municipality may by public notice order, and, if so directed by the Government shall within one month of such direction be deemed to have ordered, any burial or cremation ground situated within municipal area or within one kilometre thereof which is certified by the Health Officer to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood to be closed, from a date to be specified in the notice and shall in such case, if no suitable place for burial or cremation exists within a reasonable distance, provide a suitable place for the purpose.

(2) Private burial places, in such burial grounds, may be exempted from the notice, subject to such conditions as the municipality may impose in this behalf :

Provided that the limits of such burial places are, sufficiently defined, and that they shall only be used for the burial of the members of the family of the owners thereof.

(3) No burial or cremation ground, whether public or private, shall be made or formed after the commencement of this Act, except with the sanction in writing of the municipality which shall not be granted unless the Health Officer has certified in writing for the information of the municipality that such burial or cremation ground is not prejudicial to public health :

Provided that no such burial or cremation ground shall be made or formed, except with the sanction of the Government.

(4) Should any person, without the permission of the municipality, bury or cremate, or cause or permit to be buried or cremated, any corpse at any place, which is not a burial or cremation ground or in any burial or cremation ground made or formed contrary to the provisions of this section, or after the date fixed thereunder for closing the same, he shall be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than twenty-five rupees and more than five hundred rupees.

112. Disposal of mad and stray dogs and other animals.— (1) The municipality may—

(a) authorise any person—

(i) to destroy, or cause to be destroyed, or confine, or cause to be confined for such period as the municipality may direct, any dog or other animal suffering or reasonably suspected to be suffering from rabies, or bitten by any dog or other animal suffering or suspected as aforesaid;

(ii) to confine, or cause to be confined any dogs found wandering about streets or public places without collars or other marks distinguishing them as private property and charge a fee for such detention and destroy or otherwise dispose of any such dog, if it is not claimed within one week and the fee is not paid ;

(b) issue a temporary or standing order that any dogs without collars or other marks, distinguishing them as private property, found straying on the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of the owners of such dogs may be destroyed and destroy or cause them to be destroyed accordingly. Public notice shall be given of every such order.

(2) No damages shall be payable in respect of any dog or other animal destroyed or otherwise disposed of under this section.

113. Dogs not to be at large.— Whoever, being the owner or person incharge of any dog, neglects to restrain it so that it shall not be at large in any street without a muzzle:—

(a) if such dog is likely to annoy or intimidate passengers ; or

(b) if the municipality has by public notice during the prevalence of rabies directed that dogs shall not be at large without muzzles, shall be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than one thousand rupees and more than two thousand rupees.

114. Control of elephants, bears or camels. – Whoever, being incharge of any elephant, bear or camel omits, on being requested to do so, to remove, as far as may be practicable, his elephant, bear or camel to a safe distance on the approach of a horse, whether ridden or driven, shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to one hundred rupees.

115. Taking elephants along public roads. – Whoever, contrary to any orders of the municipality, takes an elephant along a street shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

116. Power to require buildings, wells, tanks etc. to be secured – Should any building, or any well, tank, r'eservojr, pool, depression or excavation, be, for want of sufficient repair, protection or enclosure dangerous to the persons dwelling or working therein or in the neighbourhood or to persons passing by, the municipality may by notice, require the owner or occupier thereof to repair, protect or enclose the same and should appear it to be necessary in order to prevent imminent danger, it shall forthwith take such steps to avert the danger as may be necessary.

117. Building etc. in dangerous state. – Should any building, wall or structure, or anything affixed there, on or any bank or tree be deemed by the municipality to be in a ruinous state or in any way dangerous, or there be any fallen building or debris or other material, which is, unsightly or is likely to be in any way injurious to health it may, by notice, require the owner thereof either to remove the same, or to cause such repairs to be made to the buildings, wall, structure or bank, as the municipality may consider necessary for the public safety, and should it appear to be necessary in order to prevent imminent danger, the municipality shall forthwith take such steps, at the expense of the owner, to avert the danger as may be necessary.

118. Cleaning of filthy building or land. – Should the owner, part-owner or occupier of any building or land suffer the same to be in a filth by, or unwholesome state, the municipality may, by notice, require him within twenty-four hours to cleanse the same or otherwise put in a proper state and thereafter to keep it in a clean and proper state and if it appears to be necessary for sanitary purposes to do so, may at any time by notice, direct the occupier of any building to lime wash or otherwise cleanse the said building inside and outside in the manner and within a period to be specified in the notice.

119. Paving or draining of cattle-stands. – The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land on which cattle or other animals are habitually tethered to have the same property paved or drained or both.

120. Power to prohibit use of unfit buildings.—Should any building, or any part of any building, appear to the municipality to be unfit for human habitation in consequence of the want of proper means of drainage or ventilation or any sufficient reason, the municipality may, by notice prohibit the owner or occupier thereof from using the same for human habitation or suffering it to be so used, until it has been rendered fit for such use to the satisfaction of the municipality, and no such owner or occupier shall inhabit such building or suffer it to be inhabited until the municipality shall have informed in writing the owner or occupier that the prohibition has been withdrawn.

121. Power to require owner to clear away noxious vegetation.—The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land to clear away and remove any thick vegetation of undergrowth, which may appear to the municipality to be injurious to the health or offensive to the neighbourhood.

122. Power to require hedges and trees to be trimmed.—The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land to cut or trim within three days the hedges growing thereon and bordering on any street or any branches of trees growing thereon which overhang any street and obstruct the same or cause danger or which so overhang any well, tank or other source from which water is derived for public use as to be likely to pollute the water thereof or are in any way offensive or injurious to health.

123. Power to require untenanted buildings becoming a nuisance to be secured or enclosed.—The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or part owner, or person claiming to be the owner or part-owner of any building or land which, by reason of abandonment or disputed ownership or other cause has remained untenanted and become a resort of idle and disorderly persons or otherwise a nuisance, to secure or enclose the same within a reasonable time fixed in the notice.

124. Prohibition of cultivation of crop or use of manure or irrigation injurious to health.—(1) If the Health Officer certifies that the cultivation of any description of crop or the use of any kind of manure or the irrigation of land in any specified manure:—

(a) in any place within the limits of any municipal area is injurious or facilitates practices, which are injurious to the health of person dwelling in the neighbourhood; or

(b) in any place within or beyond the limits of any municipal area likely to contaminate the water-supply of such municipality or otherwise render it unfit for drinking purpose.

the municipality may prohibit the cultivation of such crop, the use of such manure or the employment of the method of irrigation so reported to be injurious, or impose such conditions with respect thereto as may prevent such injury or contamination :

Provided that, if it is notified by the Government that the cultivation of such crop the use of such manure, or the employment of such method of irrigation is prohibited or conditions are imposed with respect thereto, the municipality shall be deemed to have ordered such prohibition, or impose such conditions and shall issue notice, in accordance with the notification :

Provided also that, when on any land to which such prohibition applies the act prohibited has been practised during the five years next preceding the prohibition, the ordinary course of husbandry , compensation shall be paid from the municipal fund to all persons interested therein for any damage caused to them by the effect of such prohibition.

(2) Should any person fail within six months from the date of its service to comply with a prohibitory notice issued under sub-section (1), he shall, be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than two hundred rupees and with a further fine of fifty rupees for every day during which the offence is continued.

(2) If the owner of a cinematograph or other apparatus uses the apparatus or allows it to be used, or if any person takes part in any public dramatic or circus performance or pantomime, or dance if the occupier of any premises allows those premises to be used in contravention of the provisions of this section, or of any condition of a licence granted under this section, he shall be liable to a fine, which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing offence to a further penalty of fifty rupees for each day during which the offence continues and the licence, if any, shall be liable to be revoked by the municipality.

128. Power to prohibit trades.—(1) Whenever it appears, that any place registered or licensed under the preceding sections is a nuisance to the neighbourhood or likely to be dangerous to life, health or property, the municipality may, and if so required by the Government, shall by notice require the occupier thereof to discontinue the use of such place, or to effect such alterations, additions or improvements as well, in the opinion of the municipality render it no longer nuisance or dangerous.

(2) Whoever, after any notice has been given under this section, uses such place or permits such place to be used in such a manner as to be nuisance to the neighbourhood or dangerous or does not effect such alteration, addition or improvements, shall be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than two hundred rupees and more than two thousand rupees and with a further fine of one hundred rupees for every day during which the offence is continued.

129. Use of steam whistles etc.—(1) No person shall use or employ, in any factory or other place, any whistle or trumpet or any other mechanical contrivance, which emits an offensive noise for the purpose of summoning or dismissing workmen or persons employed, nor shall any person by means of any contrivance increase the noise emitted in any such factory or place by the exhaust pipe of any engine, without the written permission of the, municipality, in granting which, the municipality may impose such conditions as it may deem proper, restricting the time at which such whistle or trumpet, or other contrivance may be used.

(2) The municipality may on giving one month's notice revoke any permission given under sub-section (1).

(3) Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of this section, uses or employ any whistle, trumpet, or other contrivance, shall be punishable with a fine, which may extend to two hundred rupees, and with a further fine, which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which the offence is continued.

130. Provisions of drains, privies, etc.—(1) The municipality may, by notice, require the owner of any building or land to provide, move or remove any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse or, provide any additional drains, privies, latrines, urinals, cesspools or other receptacles as aforesaid which should, in its opinion, be provided for the building or land, in such manner and of such pattern as the municipality may direct.

(2) The municipality may by notice, require any person employing more than twenty workmen or labourers to provide such latrines and urinals as it may think fit and cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleaned.

(3) The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land to have any privy, latrine or urinal provide for the same shut out by a sufficient roof and wall or fence from the view of persons passing by or dwelling in the neighbourhood, or to remove or alter, as the municipality may direct, any door or trap door of a privy, latrine or urinal opening on to any street or drain.

(4) The municipality may, and when required by the Government shall provide latrines and urinals for the use of public.

131. Repairs and closing of drains, privies etc.—(1) The municipality may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land to repair, alter, or put in good order any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or receptacle for any filth or refuse, or to close any drain, privy, latrine, urinal or cesspool belonging thereto.

(2) The municipality may, by notice, require any person, who has constructed any new drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or receptacle for filth or refuse without its permission in writing or contrary to its directions or regulations or the provisions of this Act, or who has constructed, rebuilt or opened any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or receptacle for filth or refuse, which it has ordered to be demolished or stopped or not to be made, to demolish the drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or receptacle or to make such alteration therein as it may think fit.

132. Unauthorised building over drains etc.— The municipality may, by notice require any person, who without its permission in writing has newly erected or rebuilt any building over any sewer, drain, culvert, water-course or water pipe vested in the municipality, to pull down otherwise deal with the same as it may think fit.

133. Removal of latrines etc. near any source of water supply.—

(1) The municipality may by notice, require any owner or occupier on whose land any drain, privy, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse for the time being exists within fifteen meters of any spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source from which water is or may be derived for public use, to remove or close the same within one week from the service of such notice.

(2) Whoever, without the permission of the municipality, makes or keeps for a longer time than one week after notice under this section any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse, within fifty feet of any spring, well, tank, reservoir or any other source from which water is or may be derived for public use, shall be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees and, when a notice has been issued, with a further fine of fifty rupees for each day during which the offence is continued after the lapse of the period allowed for removal.

134. Discharging sewerage.—Whoever, without the permission of the municipality, causes or knowingly or negligently allows the contents of any sink, sewer or cesspool or any other offensive matter to flow, drain or be put upon any street or public place, or into any irrigation channel or any sewer or drain not set apart for the purpose, shall be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than five hundred rupees.

135. Making or altering drains without authority.—Whoever, without the permission of the municipality makes or causes to be made, or alters or causes to be altered, any drain leading into any of the sewer or drains vested in the municipality shall— be punishable with a fine, which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees.

136. Power to require removal of nuisance arising from tanks and the lake.— The municipality may by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or building to cleanse, repair, cover, fill up or drain off any private well or tank, reservoir, pool, depression or excavation therein, which may appear to the municipality to be injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood :

Provided that if for the purposes of effecting any drainage under this section, it should be necessary to acquire any land not belonging to the same owner or to pay compensation to any person the municipality shall provide such land or pay such compensation.

137. Power of municipality to lay or carry wires, pipes, drains or sewers through private lands.— The municipality may carry any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel of any kind for the purpose of establishing telephonic or other similar communication or for carrying out and establishing or maintaining any system of lighting, drainage or sewerage, through, across, under or over any road, street, or place laid out as or intended for a road or street, and, after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through, across, under, over or up the side of any land or building whatsoever, situate within the limits of the municipal area, and, for the purpose of the introduction, distribution or outfall of water or for the removal or outfall of sewerage without such limits, and may, at all times do all acts and things, which may, be necessary or expedient for repairing or maintaining any such cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer, or channel, as the case may be, in an effective state for the purpose for which the same may be used or intended to be used ;

— Provided that such work shall be done so as to cause the least practical nuisance or inconvenience to any person :

Provided further that reasonable compensation shall be paid to the owner or occupier for any damage at the time sustained by him and directly occasioned by the carrying out of any such operations.

138. Provision as to wire, pipe, drains or sewers laid or carried above surface of ground.—In the event of any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel being laid or carried above the surface of any land or through, over or up the side of any building, such cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel, as the case may be, shall be so laid or carried as

Provided that should the municipality neglect or omit for two months after the receipt of such notice, or if an order has been issued under clause (b) of section 177 fails within the period specified in such order, to make and deliver to the person who has given such an order of sanction or refusal in respect thereof, it shall be deemed to have sanctioned the proposed street absolutely.

179. Operation of sanction. —Every sanction for the laying out or making of a street which shall be given or be deemed to have been given, by a municipality, shall remain in force for one year only from the date of such sanction, should the laying out or making of the street not have been commenced within the said period of one year, the sanction shall be deemed to have lapsed, but such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh sanction under the foregoing provisions of this Act.

Explanation. — A street shall be deemed to be made or laid out when it is demarcated on the ground made by permanent boundary marks.

180. Whoever begins, continues or completes the laying out or making of a street without giving the notice required by section 176 or in contravention of any written directions made under section 178 or of any bye-law or provision of this Act, shall be liable to a fine which shall not be less than two hundred rupees and more than two thousand rupees.

181. Notice to owner of land under street.— In any case where the municipality considers that any land is being or has been laid out as a street without the notice required by section 176 having been given or in contravention of any written direction made by the municipality under section 178 or of any bye-law or provisions of this Act, the municipality may, by notice in writing require the owner of the land to alter the street in such manner as it deems necessary.

182. Power to require repair of streets and to declare such streets public—(1)

(a) When the municipality considers that in any street other than a public street, or in any part of such street within the municipal area, it is necessary for the public health, convenience or safety, that any work should be done for the levelling, paving, metalling, flagging, channelling, draining, lighting or cleaning thereof the municipality may, by written notice, require the owner or owners of such streets or part thereof, to carry out such works in a manner and within a time to be specified in such notice.

(b) Should the owner refuse or should he fail to carry out the work in the time specified, the municipality may, by written notice, require the owners of the land or buildings, fronting, adjoining, or abutting upon such street or part thereof to carry out the work in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If compliance with the terms of the notice issued under clause (b) of sub-section (1) is not effected within the time specified, the municipality may, if it thinks fit, itself execute the work and may recover, as arrears of tax under section 87, the expenses incurred in doing so in such proportion as it may deem equitable from the owner of the street and the persons served with a notice under clause (b) of sub-section (1).

(3) After such work has been carried out by the persons served with a notice under clause (b) of sub-section (1) or as provided in sub-section (2) by the municipality at the expenses of such persons and the owner of the street, or part thereof, in which such work has been done, may, and on the requisition of the owner or owners of the major portion of the said street or part thereof or on the requisitions of a majority of the persons served within a notice under clause (b) of sub-section (1), it shall be declared by a public notice to be put up therein by the municipality to be a public street and shall vest in the municipality.

(4) A municipality may at any time, by notice fixed up in any street or part thereof not maintainable by the municipality, give intimation of their intention to declare the same a public street and unless within one month next after such notice has been so put up, the owner or anyone of several owners of such street or such part of a street lodge objection thereto at the municipal office, the municipality may, by notice in writing put up in such street, or such part, declare the same to be a public street vested in the municipality.

183. Punishment for encroachment or overhanging structure over street.— (1) Whoever, without the Written-permission of the municipality, makes immovable encroachment on or under any street, on, over or under any sewer, or water course, or erects or re-erects any immovable overhanging structure projecting into a street at any point above the said ground level, shall be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the municipality may, by notice, call upon any person who has committed a breach of the provisions contained in the said sub-section to stop the unauthorized construction forthwith and to remove or alter such immovable encroachment or overhanging structure as aforesaid within a period of seven days and if such person fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the municipality within the said period of seven days, the municipality may itself take such measures as may appear to it to be necessary to give effect to the order and the cost of such measures shall, if not paid on demand being made to him, be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue.

184. Permission of occupation of public street and removal of obstruction.—(1) The municipality may grant permission in writing, on such conditions as may be approved by the Deputy Commissioner for the safety or convenience of persons passing by or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood and may at its discretion withdraw the permission, to any person to—

(a) place in front of any building any moveable encroachment upon the ground level of any public street or over or on any sewer, drain or water course or any moveable overhanging structure projecting into such public street at a point above the said ground level ;

(b) take up or alter the pavement or other materials for the fences of posts of any public street ;

(c) deposit or cause to be deposited building materials, goods for sale, or other articles on any public street ;

(d) make any hole or excavation on, in or under any street, or remove materials from beneath any street, so as to cause risk of subsidence; or

(e) erect or set up any fence, post, stall or scaffolding in any public street, and may charge fees according to a scale to be approved by the Deputy Commissioner for such permission.

(2) Whoever does any of the acts mentioned in sub-section (1) without the written permission of the municipality shall be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than two hundred rupees and the municipality or the Executive Officer or the Secretary or the Health Officer or any person authorised by the municipality may ;-

(i) after reasonable opportunity has been given to the owner to remove his material and if he has failed to do so, remove or cause to be removed by the Police, or any other agency, any such moveable encroachments or overhanging structures and any such materials, goods or articles of merchandise and any such fine post, stall, or scaffolding ;

(ii) take measures to restore the street to the condition it was before any such alteration, excavation or damage.

(3) If the material specified in clause (i) of sub-section (2) has not been claimed by the owner within a fortnight of its having been deposited for safe custody by the municipality or if the owner fails to pay to the municipality the actual cost of removal or deposit in safe custody, the municipality may have the material sold by auction at the risk of the owner, and the balance of the proceeds of such sale shall after deduction of the expenditure incurred by the municipality be paid to the owner, or if the owner cannot be found, or refuses to accept payment the balance shall be kept in deposit by the municipality until claimed by the person entitled thereto, and if claim is made within two years the municipality may credit the amount to, the municipal fund.

Explanation :- For the purposes of this section moveable encroachment includes a seat of settee, and moveable overhanging structure includes an awning of any material.

185. Power of Deputy Commissioner to remove encroachment – Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 183 and 184, the Deputy Commissioner may within his jurisdiction, order any person responsible for any encroachment as specified in sections 183 and 184 to. remove or alter such encroachment within specified time, not exceeding two weeks and in case of non-compliance of such order may remove or alter such encroachment and recover all expenses thereby incurred from the person as arrear of tax under section 87.

186. Power to regulate line of a street.—(1) Should any house, shop, wall or other building or part of a building project beyond the regular line of a Street, either as existing or as determined for .the future, or beyond the front of the building on either side thereof, the municipality may, whenever such house, shop, wall or other building or part thereof, has been either entirely or in greater part taken down or burned down, or has fallen down, by notice require such building or part when being rebuilt to be set back to or towards the said regular line or the front of the adjoining buildings ; and the portion of the land added to the street by such setting back or removal shall become a part of the street and shall vest in the municipality;

Provided that the municipality shall make full compensation to the owner of the building, or of the land thus vacated, for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back.

(2) The municipality may, on such terms as it may think fit, allow any building to be set forward for the improvement of the line of the street.

187. Government street. – Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 183, 184 or 186 in clause (v) of section 202 and subject to any general or special order the Government may make in this behalf, if any street is vested in the Government—

(2) When a scheme has been drawn up under the provisions of sub-section (1), the municipality shall give public notice of such schemes and shall at the same time intimate a date not less than thirty days from the date of such notice by which any person may submit to the municipality in writing any objection or suggestion with regard to such scheme which he may wish to make.

(3) The municipality shall consider every objection or suggestion, with regard to the scheme which may be received by the date intimated under the provisions of sub-section (2) and may modify the scheme in consequence of any such objection or suggestion and shall then forward such scheme as originally drawn up or as modified to the Deputy Commissioner, who may if he thinks fit, return to the municipality for reconsideration and resubmission by a specified date; and the Deputy Commissioner shall submit the plans as forwarded, or as resubmitted, as the case may be, with his opinion to the Government, who may sanction such scheme or may refuse to sanction it or may return it to the municipality for reconsideration and resubmission by a specified date.

(4) If a municipality fails to submit a scheme within six months of being required to do so under sub-section (1) or fails to resubmit a scheme by a specified date, when required to do so under sub-section (3) or resubmits a scheme which is not approved by the Government, the Deputy Commissioner may draw up a scheme of which public notice shall be given by notification and by publication within the municipal area together with an intimation of the date by which any person may submit in writing to the Deputy Commissioner any objection or suggestion which he may wish to make, and the Deputy Commissioner shall forward with his opinion any such objection or suggestion to the Government, and the Government may sanction such scheme as originally notified or modified in consequence of any such objection or suggestion, as the Government may think fit and the cost of such scheme or such portion of the cost as the Government may deem fit, shall be defrayed from the municipal fund.

(5) When sanctioning a scheme the State Government may impose conditions for the submission of periodical reports on the progress of the scheme to the Deputy Commissioner or to the State Government, and for the inspection and supervision of the scheme by the State Government.

(6) After the scheme has been sanctioned, the municipality shall proceed to provide internal services as soon as possible and complete it within a period of five years from the date of its sanction.

206. Regularisation of certain buildings.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 205, the Government may, in the public interest, regularise the buildings in any area whether constructed with or without sanction of the municipality and for which no building scheme Master Plan or town planning scheme/Master Plan has been sanctioned.

(2) The municipality may, in respect of the area covered under sub-section (1) of section 205 proceed to provide internal services as defined in the said sub-section to the owners of the buildings and plots and shall impose a fee for providing the same in accordance with the provisions of section 70.

207. Punishment for erection or re-erection of a building on sanction of a building scheme under section 205.— If under the provisions of any scheme sanctioned under section 205 the erection or re-erection of buildings in a specified area for a specified purpose is prohibited, any person who after such scheme is sanctioned uses any building for such purpose shall, unless it was used for this purpose before the scheme was sanctioned, on conviction be liable to a fine which shall not be less than five hundred rupees and more than two thousand rupees and if after such conviction, he continues to use such building for such purpose shall be liable to a further fine of one hundred rupees for every day during which such use continues.

208. Powers of municipality to sanction or refuse erection or re-erection of buildings.—(1) The municipality shall refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building in contravention of any bye-law made under sub-section (1) of section 204 or in contravention of any scheme sanctioned under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 205, unless it be necessary to sanction the erection of a building in contravention of such a scheme owing to the municipalities inability to pay compensation as required by section 186 for the setting back of a building.

(2) When the erection or re-erection of a building is likely; in the opinion of the municipality to interfere with the enforcement of a scheme proposed under section 205 the municipality may refuse its sanction, and in such case shall communicate its refusal in writing together with the ground therefor, to the applicant within sixty days of the receipt of his application and the applicant may thereafter by written notice require the municipality to proceed with the preparation of the proposed scheme with all possible speed. The application shall be deemed to have been sanctioned if an order of refusal is not passed by the municipality, within the time specified above, or if the proposed scheme has not received the sanction of the Government within twelve months of the date of delivery of applicant's written notice hereinbefore referred to :

— Provided that should a resolution refusing such sanction be suspended under section 264, the period prescribed above shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders by the Government under its sub-section (2).

Explanation.— A scheme shall be deemed to have been proposed under this section if a requisition for its preparation has been received by the municipality from the Deputy Commissioner or if the preparation of the scheme is under the consideration of the municipality .

(3) The municipality, may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building for any other reason, to be communicated in writing to the applicant, which it, deems to be just and sufficient as affecting such building, or if on the land, which it is proposed to erect or re-erect such building is vested in the Government or in the municipality, and the consent of the Government or as the case may be, of the municipality has not been obtained, or if the title to the land is in dispute between such person and the municipality or the Government.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) the municipality, may sanction the erection or re-erection of any building either absolutely or subject to such modifications in accordance with the bye-laws and rules as it may deem fit.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) but subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 204 and sub-section (2) of this section if the municipality neglects or omits within sixty days of the receipt from any person of a valid notice of such person's intention to erect or re-erect a building, or within one hundred twenty days, if the notice relates to a building on the same or part of the same site, on which sanction for the erection of a building has been refused within the previous twelve months to pass orders sanctioning or refusing to sanction such erection or re-erection, such erection or re-erection shall unless the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect such buildings vests in the municipality, be deemed to have been sanctioned, except in so far as it may contravene any bye-law, or any building or town planning scheme sanctioned under section 205 :

Provided that should a resolution conveying or refusing such sanction be suspended under section 264 the period prescribed under this sub-section shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders by the Director or the Deputy Commissioner under section 267 :

Provided further that if not less than one fifth of the members present vote against a resolution conveying sanction, the sanction shall be deemed not to have been conveyed until after the lapse of fourteen days from the passing of the resolution.

209. Power of municipality to direct modification of a sanctioned plan of a building before its completion.—(1) For the purposes of drawing up of a building scheme for built up area and a town planning scheme for unbuilt up areas, the municipality may, and if so required by the Government shall cause the geological survey of the municipal area conducted by such persons and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the building plan is sanctioned, the person, at whose instance building operations are to be carried out shall, after the excavation of the foundation and before starting construction thereon, intimate the municipality about the excavation of the foundation.

(3) For the purpose of ascertaining, whether the strata of the land, over which a building is to be erected is geologically fit, and the building operation thereon can be carried out in accordance with the sanctioned plan, the municipality may, within seven days from the intimation under sub-section (2), cause inspection of excavated foundation to be made by such persons as it may direct, and in such manner as may be prescribed :

Provided that the person at whose instance the building operation are carried out shall be associated in the inspection.

(4) The persons making the inspection Under sub-section (3), may communicate to the person, from whom intimation under sub-section (2) has been received, its views in regard to the result of such inspection and may after ascertaining the opinion of the said person, recommend to that person the action to be taken as a result of such inspection and also report to the Executive Officer of the municipality the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken for the purposes of implementation of any such recommendation.

(5) On the receipt of the report under sub-section (4), the municipality may, within seven days from the date of intimation under sub-section (2), give such direction to the person concerned, as it may deem fit.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, if at any time before the completion of a building of which the erection has been sanctioned under section 208 the municipality finds that modification of the sanctioned plan is necessary, the municipality may, subject to the compensation for any loss to which the owner may be put, direct that the building be modified accordingly.

210. Completion Certificate and lapse of sanction.— (1) Every person shall, within one month after the completion of the erection of the whole or part of the building, deliver or sent or cause to be delivered or sent to the Executive Officer a notice in writing of such completion or part of completion accompanied by a certificate in the Form prescribed by bye-laws made in this behalf and Shall give to the Executive Officer all necessary facilities for the inspection of such building or part of the building.

(2) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any such building or use or permit to be used any building or part thereof until permission has been granted by the Executive Officer in this behalf in accordance with the by-laws made under this Act:

Provided that if the Executive Officer fails within a period of thirty days after the receipt of the notice of completion to communicate his refusal to grant such permission shall be deemed to have been granted.

(3) Every sanction for the erection or re-erection of any building, which shall be given or be deemed to have been given by a municipality shall remain in force for two years only from the date of such sanction or for such longer period as the municipality or the Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be, may have allowed when conveying sanction under section 203. Should the erection or re-erection of the building not have been commenced within one year and completed within three years or such longer period as may have been allowed by the municipality the sanction shall be deemed to have lapsed but such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh sanction under the foregoing provisions of the Act.

211. Penalty for disobedience.—(1) Should a building be begun, erected or re-erected—

(a) without sanction as required by sub-section (1) of section 203 ;
or

(b) without notice as required by sub-section (2) of section 203 ; or

(c) when sanction has been refused ;

(d) in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted ;

(e) when the sanction lapsed; or

(f) in contravention of any bye-law made under section 204 or, in the case of a building, of which the erection has been deemed to be sanctioned under sub-section (5) of section 208; if it contravenes any scheme sanctioned under section 205 ;

the municipality may by notice to be delivered to the owner within six months from the completion of the building, require the building to be altered in such manner as it may deem necessary, within the period specified in such notice :

Provided that the municipality shall require a building to be demolished or altered so far as is necessary to avoid contravention of a building scheme drawn up under section 205 :

Provided further that where the erection or the work has not been completed, the Executive Officer may by the same or separate order, whether made at the time of the issue of the notice under this sub-section or at another time, direct the person to stop erection or work till the expiry of the period within which an appeal against the order of demolition if made, may be preferred under sub-section (1) of section 212 :

Provided further that if any notice issued by the Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be, under this section on the ground that a building has been begun or has been erected in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted or in contravention of any bye-law made under section 204 the person to whom the notice is issued may, within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice appeal to the municipality and subject to the provisions of sections 212, 264 and 269, the decision of the municipality shall be final :

Provided further that the copy of the final order of the municipality shall be given free of costs to the appellant immediately after it is made.

(2) Where the owner of the building submits the revised plan, after the work has been stopped by him or the work is completed by him and deviation from the sanctioned plan are minor in nature the municipality may, subject to the special or general directions of the Government under sub-section (3), compound the cases of deviation.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this sub-section the expression "minor" shall not include—

- (a) addition of a storey beyond the sanctioned plan ;
- (b) erection of a building—

(i) on any Government land or the land vested in municipality or a local authority ; .

(ii) by covering any public road, street, path or drain.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in this Act the Government, may from time to time give such special or general directions in the matters of policy in relation to the compounding of cases involving deviations from the sanctioned plans as in its opinion are required to be followed by the municipality for compounding such cases under sub-section (2) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act the municipality may, after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard, deny or withdraw the civic amenities including water and sewerage connections, if the owner of the building makes deviations from the sanctioned plan by addition of a storey beyond the sanctioned plan or erection of a building on any Government land or land vested in the municipality or by covering any public road, street, path or drain.

(5) Any person failing to comply with the direction to stop erection or work under second proviso to sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine, which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues.

212. Order of demolition of building and works in certain cases and appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the municipality made under second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 211 may prefer an appeal to the District Judge having jurisdiction over the municipal area within the period of seven days from the date on which the copy of order made by the municipality is given to him.

(2) Where an appeal is preferred under sub-section (1) against an order of demolition, the District Judge may stay the enforcement of that order on such terms if any, and for such period, as he may think fit:

Provided that where the erection of any building or execution of any work has not been completed at the time of the making of the order of demolition no order staying the enforcement of the order of demolition shall be made by the District Judge unless reasonable opportunity of being heard is afforded to the municipality and security sufficient in the opinion of the District Judge has been given by the appellant for not proceeding with such erection or work pending the disposal of the appeal.

(3) Save as provided in this section no court shall entertain any suit, application or other proceedings for inundation or other relief against the municipality or restrain it from taking any action or making any order in pursuance of the provisions of this section.

(4) Every order made by the District Judge on appeal and subject only to such order, the order of demolition made by the municipality shall be final and conclusive.

(5) Where no appeal has been preferred against an order of demolition made by the municipality under section 211 or where an order of demolition made by the municipality under that section has been confirmed on appeal, whether with or without variation the person against whom the order has been made shall comply with the order within the period specified therein or, as the case may be, within the period, if any fixed by the District Judge on appeal, and on the failure of the person to comply with the order within such period, the Executive Officer may himself cause the erection of the work to which the order relates to be demolished and the expenses of such demolition shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear of tax under this Act.

213. Compensations.—(1) No compensation shall be claimable by an owner for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of erection of any building.

(2) The municipality shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or a part of a building except in so far as the prohibition is necessary under any bye-law:

Provided that the municipality shall make full compensation to the owner for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back, unless for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such notice the building has by reason of its being in a ruinous or dangerous condition become unfit for human habitation or unless an order of prohibition issued under section 120 has been and still is in force in respect of such building.

214. Power of municipality to regulate the manufacture, preparation and sale of food and drink.— The municipality may, and shall, if so required by the Government by bye-laws

(a) prohibit the manufacture, sale or preparation or exposure for sale of any specified article of food or drink, in any place or premises not licenced by the municipality ;

(b) regulate the hours And manner of transport within the municipal area of any specified articles of food or drink, and prescribe the route by which such articles shall be carried ;

(c) prohibit the sale of milk, butter, ghee, curd, meat, game fish and poultry by persons not licenced by the municipality ;

(d) prohibit the import into the municipal area for sale of milk, cream, butter, ghee, curd, meat, game fish and poultry by persons not licenced by the municipality ;

(e) regulate the grant and withdrawal of licences and the levying of fees therefor under this section :

Provided that no person shall be punishable for breach of any bye-law made under clause (a) of this section by reason of the continuance of such manufacture, preparation or exposure for sale, or sale upon any premises which are, at the time of the making of such bye-laws used for each such purpose until he has received from the municipality six months notice in writing to discontinue such manufacture, preparation or exposure for such sale, or such sale in such premises.

215. Prohibition of possession or sale of wild animals.—No wild animals in respect of which any close time has been notified by the Government under section 15 of the Jammu and Kashmir Wild Life (Protection) Act, 1978 shall whether dead or alive be possessed or sold during such close time within any municipal area and no such animal shall at any other time be sold within any municipal area except under an annual licence to be granted by the municipality :

Provided that these prohibitions shall not extend to wild animals possessed or sold as pets.

216. Penalty for infringement of bye-laws.— In making any bye-law under any section of this Chapter, the municipality may direct that a breach or an abetment of a breach of it, shall be punishable with a fine which shall extend to five hundred rupees and when the breach is a continuing breach, with a further fine of ten rupees for every day after the first conviction during which the breach continues.

217. Confirmation of bye-laws.— (1) No bye-law made, under any section of this Chapter shall come into force until it has been confirmed by the Government and, published for such time and in such manner as the Government may prescribe in this behalf.

(2) The Government may cancel its confirmation of any such bye-laws, and thereupon the bye-laws, shall cease to have effect.

218. Power of Government to make bye-laws.—(1) In any case in which no bye-laws have been made by the municipality under section 202 or section 203 or section 204 or section 214 the State Government may make bye-laws for that purpose.

(2) The bye laws made under the aforesaid sub-sections shall cease to operate when the municipality makes bye-laws in that behalf.

219. Procedure for making bye-laws.— All bye-laws made under this Act shall be subject to previous publication.

220. Bye-laws to be available for purchase and inspections — (1) A copy of all bye-laws, made under this Act for any municipal area shall be kept at the office of the municipality and shall be open during office hours without charge to the inspection of any inhabitant.

(2) Copies of all such bye-laws shall be kept at the office of the municipality for sale to the public at a price not exceeding twenty rupees. —

CHAPTER XII

Prevention of soil erosion and hill side safety.

221. Regulation of felling of trees within municipal limits. (1) No person shall fell any tree whether belonging to him or otherwise of the prescribed class within the jurisdiction of any municipality in the State except under a permit obtained from the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner.

Explanation— For the purposes of this Chapter the expression "felling of tree" shall include cutting or destroying or causing or suffering to be cut or destroyed any tree, but shall not include bonafide pruning, trimming or otherwise altering shrubs or fruit trees for purely horticultural purposes and other petty acts, such as, the cutting of twigs, digging of ferns and the like from which no material harm of any kind to person or property is likely to result.

(2) No application for grant of permit for felling of tree shall be entertained unless it is accompanied by a fee of Rs. 50/- which amount shall be utilized for fresh plantation.

(3) (i) A breach of the provision for sub-section (1) or abetment of breach thereof in respect of cutting or destroying of each tree of the prescribed class shall be a separate offence and shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(ii) When any person is convicted for breach of the provisions of sub-section (1) the court convicting such person shall in addition to the punishment imposed, order forfeiture in favour of the concerned municipality of any tree/fuel/timber in whatever form it may have been converted and in respect of which the breach of the provisions of sub-section (1) is made and in case such tree/ fuel/timber are not available for forfeiture the market value thereof as determined by the court shall be recoverable from him in the same manner as fine imposed.

(iii) No offence or breach of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be compounded by any authority empowered to compound, without providing for forfeiture of the tree, fuel or timber in favour of the concerned municipality.

(iv) Any officer especially empowered in this behalf by the Government, having reason to believe that a breach of such provision of the Act has been committed or is likely to be committed, may seize the tree, fuel or timber in respect of which such breach has been committed and also all tools used or likely to be used in the commission of such offence and all these articles shall on conviction of the offender or on the composition of the offence be forfeited to the concerned municipality.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this sub-section the term "municipality" means the Municipal Council or Halqa Panchayat, as the case may be.

(4) The Government may make rules consistent with this Act to carry out the purposes of this Chapter and all such rules shall be laid, before the State Legislature.

CHAPTER- XIII

Procedure, power of entry and inspection.

222. Inspection of drains, privies and cesspools.— (1) The municipality or Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be, may authorise any person to enter, between sunrise and sunset, into any building or upon any land and to inspect any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool, cable, wire, pipes, sewers or channels therein or thereupon, and to cause the grounds to be opened where such person as aforesaid may think fit for the purpose of preventing or removing any nuisance arising from the drains, privies, latrines, urinals, cesspools, cables, wires, pipes, sewers or channels.

(2) If, on such inspection, it appears that the opening of the ground was necessary for the prevention or removal of a nuisance, the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the land or building; but if it be found that no nuisance exists or but for such opening would have arisen, the ground or portion of any building, drain or other work, if any, opened, injured or removed for the purpose of such inspection shall be filled in, reinstated and made good by the municipality.

(3) No building other than a latrine, urinal or privy shall be entered under this section until six hours notice in writing has been given to the occupier, of the building by municipality or by the person authorised by the municipality to make the entry.

223. Inspection of building etc.— (1) The municipality or Executive Officer / Secretary, as the case may be, may authorise any person after giving three hours notice to the occupier or if there be no occupier, to the owner of any building to enter and inspect it at any time between sunrise and sunset where such inspection appears necessary for sanitary reasons.

(2) If the building to be inspected is a stable for horses or a house or shed for cows or other cattle, previous notice shall not be required before inspection.

224. Other powers of entry on buildings or land— The municipality or Executive Officer or the Secretary, as the case may be, may authorise any person, after giving twenty-four hours notice to the occupier or if there be no occupier, to the owner of any building or land, at any time between sunrise and sunset—

(a) to enter on and to survey, and to take levels or measurements of any buildings or land;

(b) to enter into any building or on any land for the purpose of examining works under construction, or ascertaining the course of sewers or drains, or of executing or repairing any work which it is by this Act empowered to execute or to maintain ;

(c) to enter into any building or on any land for the purpose of inspecting or repairing gas, water, telephonic, electric or other installations and for taking readings of meters connected therewith ;

(d) to enter into any building or on any land for the purpose of ascertaining whether any building is being or has been erected or re-erected without sanction or in contravention of any sanction given by the municipality or the Executive Officer or the Secretary as the case may be, or of any bye-laws made under section 204 or of any scheme sanctioned under section 205 and to take such measurements and do any other such acts as may be necessary for such purpose.

225. Power to inspect places for sale of food or drink etc. and to seize unwholesome articles exposed for sale.— The municipality or the Executive Officer or the Secretary, as the case may be, may authorise any person at all reasonable times to enter into and to inspect any market, building, shop, stall or place for the sale of food or drink for man, or as a slaughter-house, or for the sale of dogs, and to inspect and examine any food or drink, animal or drugs which may be therein ; and if any article of food or drink, or any animal therein appears to be intended for the consumption of man to be unfit may seize and remove the same or may cause it to be destroyed or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for such consumption; and in case it is reasonably suspected that any drug is adulterated in such manner as to lessen its efficiency or to change its operation or to render it noxious, to remove the same giving a receipt therefor, and to cause the owner thereof to be brought before a Magistrate for enquiry whether any offence has been committed in respect thereof, and for orders as to the disposal of the said drug.

226. Inspections of place for illicit slaughter of animals.—If there are reasonable grounds for believing that any animal has been, is being, or is about to be slaughtered in any place or premises not fixed for such purpose under section 172 or in contravention of any bye-laws made under sub-clause (i) of clause (5) of section, 202, the municipality or Executive Officer/ Secretary or any person authorised by it or him in this behalf may, at all reasonable times, enter into and inspect any place or premises:

Provided that no entry shall be made under the provisions of this section without an order in writing from the President or from the Health Officer. Such order shall specify the place or premises to be entered and the locality in which same is situated and the period which shall not exceed seven days for which it is to remain in force.

227. Refusal to allow inspection.—Whoever in contravention of section 224 or section 225 or section 226 or section 229, refuses to suffer inspection of any premises, food, drink, drug or animals, shall be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees.

228. Search for inflammable or explosive material in excess of authorised quantity.—(1) The municipality or Executive Officer/Secretary may authorise any person to enter upon, at any reasonable time, and inspect any house or building which is suspected to contain petroleum, explosive or other inflammable material in excess of the quantity permitted to be kept in such house or building under the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or public notice made or published thereunder.

(2) Should any such excess quantity of such material be discovered, it may be seized and held subject to such order as a Magistrate may pass with respect to it.

(3) If the Magistrate decides that the material seized was stored in the house or building contrary to the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or public notice made or published thereunder, he shall pass an order, confiscating the same.

(4) Subject to any general rules for the time being applicable thereto, the material confiscated may be sold by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds, after defraying the expenses of such sale, shall be credited to the municipal fund.

(5) No order of confiscation under this section shall operate to prevent any other criminal or civil proceedings to which the person storing the material in excessive quantity may be liable.

229. Power of entry into building or land.—(1) The Health Officer or any other officer authorised by the municipality may enter, at any time, after three hours notice, into any building or premises in which any infectious disease is reported or suspected to exist, for the purpose of inspecting such building or premises.

(2) No such inspection shall be made except during the hours between sunrise and sunset.

230. Authorization of powers.—The municipality or Executive Officer, or Secretary, as the case may be, may authorise persons to exercise the power of entry conferred by the foregoing sections of this Chapter either generally in regard to all buildings and land or particularly in regard to specified buildings and lands or classes of building and lands.

231. Precautions to be observed in entering dwelling.—When any building used as a human dwelling is entered under this Act, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious sentiments of the occupier, and before any apartment in the actual occupancy of any woman who according to custom does not appear in public, is entered under this Act, notice shall be given to her that she is at liberty to withdraw, and reasonable facility shall be afforded to her for withdrawing.

232. Reasonable time for compliance to be fixed.—When any notice under this Act requires any act to be done for which no time is fixed by this Act, it shall fix a reasonable time for doing the same.

233. Authentication, service and validity of notices.—(1) Every notice issued by a municipality under this Act or under any rule or bye-law, shall be in writing, signed by the President, Vice-President, Executive Officer, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or the Health Officer or by the members of any sub-committee specifically authorised by the municipality in that behalf, and every such notice and every order made under section 208 may be served on the person to whom it is addressed, or delivered or left at his usual place of abode or business with some adult male member or servant of his family, or, if it cannot be so served may be affixed to some conspicuous part of his place of abode or business.

(2) When the place of abode or business of the person to whom notice is addressed is not within the limits of the municipal area, the notice may be reserved by posting it in a registered cover addressed to his usual place of abode.

(3) If the owner of any property has no place of abode or business within the municipal area, every such notice addressed to him as such owner may be served on the occupier.

(4) When the place of abode or business of the occupier of any property is not known, every such notice addressed to him as such occupier may be served by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the property.

(5) No notice issued by the municipality under this Act or under any rule or bye-law shall be invalid for defect of form.

234. Service when owner and occupier are different persons. — Whenever it is provided by this Act that any notice may be given to the owner or occupier of any land or building, and the owner and occupier are different persons, such notice shall be given to one of them primarily liable to comply with such notice, and in case of doubt to both of them :

Provided that in any such case, where there is no owner resident within the municipal area, the delivery of such notice to the occupier shall be sufficient.

235. Mode of giving notice to owner or occupier of property. – when any notice is under the provisions of this Act to be given to or served on the owner or occupier of any property and he is unknown, it may be given or served—

(a) by delivering a written notice to some person on the property or should there be no person on the property to whom it can be delivered, by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the property ; or

(b) by putting into the post a pre-paid letter containing a written notice and addressed by the description of the “owner” or “occupier” of the property, naming it, in respect of which the notice is given, without further name or description.

236. Publication of public notices. – Every public notice given by a municipality under this Act or any rule or bye-law shall be published by proclamation or in such other manner as the Government may by rule, direct.

237. Penalty for disobedience of orders of municipalities. – Whoever disobeys any lawful direction or prohibition given by the municipality by public notice under this Act or any written notice lawfully issued by it thereunder, or fails to comply with the conditions subject to which any permission was given by the municipality to him under those powers shall, if the disobedience or omission is not an offence punishable under any other section, be punishable with fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, with a further fine of fifty rupees for every day after the first conviction during which the breach continues.

238. Compensation for damage.—Every person convicted of an offence under this Act on account of any act or omission, shall, notwithstanding any punishment to which he may have been sentenced for such offence, pay compensation, the amount of which shall be determined by the Magistrate before whom he was so convicted, to the municipality for any damage that may have occurred to any property of the municipality, in consequence of such act or omission.

239. Power of municipality in the event of non-compliance.—

Whenever the terms of any notice other than of a notice under section 183 have not been complied with the municipality may, after six hours notice, by its officer, cause the act to be done.

240. Penalty of obstruction.—Any person wilfully obstructing the municipality or any employee of the municipality or any person authorised by the municipality, in exercise of the powers conferred by this Act, shall be punishable with a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than one thousand rupees.

241. Recovery of costs of execution.—(1) Where, under this Act, the owner or occupier of property is required by the municipality to execute any work and default has been made in complying with the requirement, and the municipality has executed the work, the municipality may recover the cost of the work from the person in default.

(2) As between themselves and the municipality both owner and occupier shall be deemed to be in default for the purposes of this section but that one of them shall be deemed to be primarily in default upon whom, as between landlord and tenant, the duty of doing the required act would properly fall either in pursuance of the contract of tenancy or by law.

(3) When the person primarily in default is the owner, and the municipality has recovered the whole or any part of the cost from the occupier, or he has paid the same upon its demand, he may deduct the sum so recovered or paid from the rent from time to time becoming due from him to the owner, or otherwise recover it from such owner :

Provided that no occupier shall be required to pay under sub-section (3) any sum greater than the amount for the time being due from him to the owner, either in respect of rent due at the date of such demand as aforesaid or thereafter, accruing unless he has refused on demand by the municipality truly to disclose the amount of his rent and the name and address of the person to whom it is payable; but the occupier exceeds the rent due at the time of demand, or which has since accrued due, shall lie on, the occupier .

(4) All money recoverable by a municipality under this section may be recovered on application to a Magistrate having jurisdiction within the municipal area, by distress or sale of moveable property of the persons from whom the money is recoverable and if payable by the owner of the property shall, until it is paid, be a charge on the property.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect any contract between an owner and an occupier.

(6) Where under section 116 or section 117 the municipality has executed any work, the cost thereof may be recovered from the owner or occupier in connection with work done under section 116, and from the owner in connection with work done under section 117, in the manner herein provided for the recovery of the cost of work from a defaulting owner or occupier and subject to the provisions herein contained.

242 Relief to agents and trustees – (1) When any person by reason of his receiving or being entitled to receive the rent of immovable property as agent or trustee of a person or society, would, under this act, be bound to discharge any obligation imposed by this act on the owner of the property for the discharge of which money is required, he shall not be bound to discharge the obligation unless he has but for his own improper act or default might have had, in his hands funds belonging to the owner sufficient for the purpose.

(2) The burden of proving the fact entitling an agent or trustee to relief under this section shall lie on him.

(3) When any agent or trustee has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the municipality may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first money which shall come to his hands on behalf or for the use of the owner, and should he fail to comply with such notice, he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

243. Payment of compensation : (1) The municipality may make compensation out of the municipal fund to any person sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the municipality, its employees, under this act, and shall make such compensation where the damage was caused by the negligence of the municipality. Its employees and the persons sustaining the damage was not himself in default in the matter in respect of which the power was exercised.

(2) Should any dispute, for the settlement of which no express provision is made by any other section, arise touching the amount of compensation which the municipality, is by this act required to pay or empowered to receive for injury to or respect any building or land, it shall be settled in such manner as the party may agree, or, in default, of agreement, in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act. 1894, with reference to the acquisition of and payment of compensation for land for public purpose so far as it can be made applicable.

244. Appeals from orders of municipalities. – (1) Any person

aggrieved

(a) by the refusal of a municipality under section 208 to sanction the erection or re-erection of a building; or

(b) by notice from a municipality under section 182 requiring a street to be drained, levelled, flagged, metalled or provided with proper means of lighting, or declaring a street to be a public street; or

(c) by an order made by a municipality or an Executive Officer/Secretary under the powers conferred upon it by section III or section 120 or section 125 or section 128 or section 237;

may appeal within thirty days, from the date of such prohibition, notice or order to such officer as the Government may appoint for the purpose of hearing such appeals or any of them, or, failing such appointment to the Deputy Commissioner and no such refusal, notice or order shall be liable to be called in question otherwise than by such appeal.

(2) The appellate authority may, if it shall think fit, extend the period allowed by sub-section (1) for appeal.

(3) The order of the appellate authority confirming, setting aside or modifying the refusal, notice or order appealed from shall be final :

Provided that the refusal, notice or order shall not be modified or set aside until the appellant and the municipality have had opportunity of being heard.

245. Prosecution to be suspended in certain cases. – When any order of the kind specified in section 111, section 128 and section 237 is subject to appeal, and an appeal has been instituted against it. All proceedings to enforce such order and all prosecutions for any breach thereof, shall be suspended pending the decision of the appeal and if, such order is set aside on appeal, disobedience thereto, shall not be an offence.

246. Appeals from certain orders. – Every order of confiscation under section 228 shall be subject to appeal to the next superior court, but shall not be otherwise open to appeal.

247. Authority for prosecution.– Unless otherwise expressly provided, no court shall take cognisance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule or any bye-law except on the complaint of, or upon information received from the municipality or its Executive Officer/Secretary or some person authorised by the municipality or by the Executive Officer/Secretary in this behalf.

Explanation.– The municipality or its Executive Officer/Secretary may authorise any person and shall be deemed to have authorised any person appointed by the Government to make complaints or give information, without previous reference to the municipality, either generally, in regard to all offences against this Act and the rules or bye-laws, or particularly in regard only to specified offence or offences of a specified class. The person authorised may be authorised by office, if he is President, Vice-President, Health Officer of the municipality or officer-in-charge of a police station; in other cases the authority must be personal. The authority must in all cases be in writing and may at any time be cancelled by the municipality.

248. Power to compound offences.—(1) Except as otherwise provided under any other provisions of this Act, the municipality or the Executive Officer/Secretary or any other officer, authorised by the Government in this behalf may accept from person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed an offence against this Act or any rule or bye-law, a sum of money not less than five hundred rupees by way of composition for such offence.

(2) On payment of such sum of money the suspected person if in custody shall be discharged, and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in regard to the offence or alleged offence so compounded for.

(3) Sums paid by way of compensation under this section shall be credited to the municipal fund.

(4) Authorisation under sub-section (1) to accept composition for alleged offences may be given by the municipality either generally in regard to all offences under this Act and the rules and bye-laws, or particularly in regard only to specified offences or offences of a specified class and may, at any time, be withdrawn by the municipality.

(5) If the municipality has not authorised any of the officers specified in sub-section (1), it shall, if so required by the Deputy Commissioner give such authorisation to any of the officers specified in sub-section (1), and shall not withdraw authorisation given on such requisition without the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner.

CHAPTER-XIV

Financial Control And Audit

249. Constitution of Finance Commission to review financial position.—(1) The Governor shall, as soon as may be within one year from the commencement of this Act and thereafter at the expiration of every fifth year, constitute a Finance Commission to review the financial position of the Municipalities and to make recommendations to the Governor as to—

(a) the principle which should govern—

(i) the distribution between the State and the Municipalities of the net proceeds of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees leviable by the State, 'which may be divided between them under this part and allocation between the Municipalities at all levels of their respective shares of such proceeds ;

(ii) the determination of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees which may be assigned to or appropriated by the Municipalities ;

(iii) the grant-in-aid to the municipalities from the Consolidated Fund of the State ;

(b) the measures needed to improve the financial position of the Municipalities.

(c) any other matter referred to the Finance Commission by the Governor in the interests of sound finance of the Municipalities.

(2) The Government, may by notification, provide for composition of the Commission, the qualification which shall be requisite for appointment as members thereof and the manner in which they shall be selected.

(3) The Commissioner shall determine their procedure and shall have such powers in the performance of their function as the Government, may, by notification confer on them.

(4) The Governor shall cause every recommendation made by the Commission under this section together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon to be laid before the State Legislature.

250. Presentation of accounts and budget of a municipality.—(1) The Finance, Audit and Planning Committee shall cause to be prepared and laid before the municipality at a meeting, which shall be held between the first day of February and the tenth day of March, a complete account of the actual and expected receipts and expenditure for the official year ending on the thirty first day of March next following together with a budget estimate of the income and expenditure of the municipality for the official year to commence on the first day of April next following.

(2) The municipality shall, thereupon decide upon the appropriation and the ways and means contained in the budget of the year to commence on the first day of April next following. The budget as passed by the municipality shall be sent, through the Deputy Commissioner to the Director, before such date as may be fixed by the Director.

(3) In such budget estimate, the municipality shall among other things—

(a) make adequate and suitable provision for such service as may be required for the fulfilment of the several duties imposed on the municipality by this Act or any other law;

- (g) "Electoral right" means the right of a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw from being a candidate or to vote or refrain from voting at an election.

282. Chief Electoral Officer (1) The Superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of electoral rolls, determination of wards, reservation and allotment of seats by formation, for and the conduct of all elections to the municipalities shall be vested in the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) The Commission shall frame its own rules and lay its own procedure.

283. Officers authorised to hear election petitions .– The election petitions under this Act shall be heard by the Officer as may be prescribed by the Government under rules.

284. Election petitions.–No election under this Act shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

285. Presentation of petition (1) Any elector of a municipality may, on furnishing the prescribed security in the prescribed manner, present within thirty days of the publication of the result, on one or more of the grounds specified in sub-section (1) of section 296 to the authorised officer an election petition in writing against the election of any person under this Act.

(2) The election petition shall be deemed to have been presented to the authorised officer—

(a) when it is delivered to him—

(i) by the person making the petition; or

(ii) by a person authorised in writing in this behalf by the person making petition;

(b) when it is sent by registered post and is delivered to the authorised officer or any other persons empowered to receive it.

286. Contents of petition.—(1) An election petition—

(a) shall contain concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;

(b) shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practices and the date and place of the Commission of each such practice; and

(c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 for the verification of pleading:

Provided that where the petitioner alleges any corrupt practice, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof.

(2) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner, and verified in the same manner as the petition.

287. Procedures on receiving election petition — If the election petition is not furnished in the prescribed manner or the petition is not presented within the period specified in section 285, the authorised officer shall dismiss the petition; provided that the petition shall not be dismissed without giving the petitioner an opportunity of being heard.

288. Withdrawal and transfers of petitions – The director may, at any stage, after notice to parties and for reasons to be recorded withdraw any election petition pending before an authorised officer and transfer it for hearing to another authorised officer in the state and upon such transfer, that authorised officer shall proceed with the petition from the stage at which it was withdrawn; provided that such authorised officer may, if it thinks fit recall and reexamine any of the witnesses already examined.

289. Procedure before the authorised officers – (1) subject to the provisions of this act and of any rules made thereunder every election petition shall be heard by the authorised officer in accordance with the procedure applicable under the code of civil procedure, Samvat 1977 to the trial of suits; and decided within a period of 6 months from the date of presentation under section 284;

Provided that the authorised officer shall have the discretion to refuse for reasons to be recorded in writing to examine any witness or witnesses if he is of the opinion that their evidence is not material for the decision of the petition or that the party tendering such witness or witnesses is doing on frivolous grounds or with a view to delay the proceedings.

(2) the provisions of the evidence Act, Samvat 1977 shall subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to apply in all respects to the trial of election petition.

290. Appearance before the authorised officer – any appearance, application or act before the authorised officer may be made or done by the party in person or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf;

provided that it shall be open to the authorised officers to direct any party to appear in person whenever the authorised officer considers it necessary.

291. Powers of the authorised officer – The authorised officer shall have the powers which are vested in a court under the code of civil.

Procedure, Samvat 1977 when trying a suit in respect of the following matters :-

(a) discovery and inspection ;

(b) enforcing the attendance of witnesses and requiring the deposits of their expenses ;

(c) compelling the production of the documents;

(d) examining witness on oath;

(e) granting adjournments

(f) reception of evidence taken on affidavit; and

(g) issuing commissions for the examination of witness; and may summon and examine suQ moto any person whose evidence appears to him to be material and shall be deemed to be a Court within the meaning of sections 345 and 346 of the Code of the Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1977.

Explanation.— For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witness the local limits of the jurisdiction of the authorised officer shall be limits of the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

292. Documentary evidence.— In relation to the production of unstamped or un-registered documents at the hearing of an election petition, the provisions of section 93 of the Jammu and Kashmir Representation of the People Act, 1957 shall apply.

293. Secrecy of voting.—(1) No witness or other person shall be required to state for whom he has voted at any election.

(2) Every officer, clerk, agent or other person who performs any duties in connection with the recording or counting of votes at an election shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting and shall not (except for some purpose authorised by or under any law) communicate to any person any information calculated to violate such secrecy.

(3) Any person who wilfully acts in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for term not exceeding three months, or with fine, or with both.

294. Answering incriminating question and certificate of indemnity : (1) No witness shall be excused from answering any question to any matter relevant to a matter in issue in the hearing of an election petition upon the ground that the answer to such question— may criminate or may tend to criminate him, or that it may expose or may tend to expose him to any penal or forfeiture :

Provided that :—

(a) witness who answers truly all questions, which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the authorised officer; and

(b) any answer given by witness to a question put or by before the authorised officer shall not, except in case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) When a certificate of indemnity has been granted to any witness, it may be pleaded by him in any court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under Chapter-IXA of the State Ranbir Penal Code, Samvat 1989 arising out of the matter to which such certificate related but it shall not be deemed to relieve him from any disqualification in connection with an election, imposed by this Act, or any other law.

295. Expenses of witness.—The reasonable expenses incurred by any person attending to give evidence may be allowed by the authorised officer to such person, and shall, unless he otherwise directs, be deemed to be part of the costs.

296. Decision of the authorised officer.—(1) Where an election petition has been presented under section 285, the authorised officer shall inquire into the election petition and at the conclusion of the inquiry shall make an order :—

- (a) dismissing the election petition ; or
- (b) setting aside the election.

(2) At the time of making an order under sub-section (1) the authorised officer shall also make an order :—

(a) where any change is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, recording :—

(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election and the nature of that corrupt practice ; and

(ii) the name of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and

(b) Fixing the total amount of costs, payable, and specifying the persons by whom costs shall be paid. Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless :—

(i) he has been given notice to appear before the authorised officer and to show cause why he should not be so named; and

(ii) if the person appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness, who has already been examined by the authorised officer and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

297. Grounds for setting aside election.—(1) If the authorised officer is of the opinion—

(a) that on the date of his election the elected person was not qualified, or was disqualified to be elected under this Act; or

(b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by the elected person or his agent or by any other person with the consent of the elected person or his agent; or

(c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or

(d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns the elected person, has been materially affected :—

(i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination; or

(ii) by improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void; or

(iii) by any non-compliance with the provision of this Act or any rule made under this Act;

the authorised officer shall set aside the election of the elected person.

(2) When an election has been set aside under sub-section (1), a fresh election shall be held”

298. Abatement of election petition.—Any election petition shall abate only on the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

299. Costs and payment thereof out of the security deposits and return of such deposits.—(1) costs including pleader's fees shall be in discretion of the authorised officer.

(2) If in any order as to cost under the provision of this Chapter, there is direction for payment of cost by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not been already paid, be paid in full or so far as possible, out of the security deposit made by such party under this Chapter, on an application made in writing in that behalf, within a period of one year from the date of such order, to the collector by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(3) If there is any balance left of the security deposit under this Chapter after the payment under sub-section (1) of the costs referred to in that sub-section, such balance or where no costs have been awarded or no application as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year, the whole of the said security deposit may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the collector by the person by whom the security has been deposited or if such person dies after making such deposit, by the legal representative of such person, be returned to the said person or to his legal representative, as the case may be.

300. Execution of orders as to costs.—Any order as to costs under the provisions of this Chapter may be produced before the Principal Civil Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay sums of money has a place of residence or business. Such Court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner, and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit :

Provided that where any such costs or any portion thereof, may be recovered by an application made under sub-section (2) of section 299, no application shall lie under this section within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for the recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unrealised after an application has been made under that sub-section owing to insufficiency of the amount of the security deposit referred to in that sub-section.

301. Corrupt practice entailing disqualifications.—The corrupt practice specified in section 302 shall entail disqualification for membership of municipality for a period of six years counting from the date on which the finding of the authorised officer as to such practice has been given :

Provided that the Government may, for reasons to be recorded, remove the disqualification or reduce the period thereof.

302. Corrupt practices.—The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this chapter,—

(1) bribery, that is to say :—

(A) any gift, offer or promise by candidate or his agent or by any other person with consent of a candidate or his person any gratification to any person, whomsoever, with the object, directly or indirectly of inducing :—

(a) a person to stand or not stand as, or to withdraw from being a candidate at an election; or

(b) a elector of the municipal area to vote or refrain from voting at an election; or as to reward to :-

(i) a person for having so stood or not stood, or for having withdrawn his candidature ; or

(ii) an elector of the municipal area for having voted or refrained from voting ;

(B) the receipt of a agreement to receive any gratification, whether as a motive or a reward :-

(a) by a person for standing or not standing as, or for withdrawing from being candidate; or

(b) by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or attempting to induce an elector of the municipal area to vote or refrain from voting, any candidate to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this clause, the term "gratification" is, not restricted to pecuniary gratification or gratifications estimable in money and it includes pf all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of any expenses bonafide incurred at, or, for the purpose of any election.

(2) undue influence, that is to say any direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere on the part of the candidate or his agent, or of any other person with the consent of the candidate or his agent with the free exercise of any electoral right :

Provided that-

(a) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this clause, any such person as is referred to therein who -

(i) threatens any candidate or any person in whom a candidate is interested, with injury of any kind including social ostracism and ex-communication or expulsion from any caste or community ; or

(ii) induces or attempts to induce a candidate of an elector of the municipal area to believe that he, or any person, in whom he is interested will become or will be rendered an object of divine displeasure of spiritual censure ;

shall be deemed to interfere with the free exercise of the electoral right of such candidate or an elector of the municipal area within the meaning of this clause ;

(b) a declaration of public policy, or a promise of public action, or the mere exercise of a legal right without intent to interfere with an electoral right, shall not be deemed to be interference with the meaning of this clause ;

(3) the appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent to vote or refrain from voting for any person on the ground of his religion, race, caste, community or language or the use of, or appeal to religious symbols or the use of, or appeal to, national symbols, such as the national flag, or the national emblem, for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate ;

(4) the promotion of, or attempt to promote, feelings of enmity or hatred between different classes of the citizens of India on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, by a candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent for the furtherance of the prospects, of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate ;

(5) the publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, with the consent of a candidate or his agent, of any statement of fact which is false and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature or, withdrawal of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of the candidate's election ;

(6) the hiring or procuring whether on payment or otherwise of any vehicle by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent, for the conveyance of an elector of the municipal area (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station or a place fixed for the poll.

Explanation.— In this clause, the expression 'vehicle' means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise; and

(7) the obtaining or procuring or abetting or attempting to obtain or procure by a candidate or his agent, or by any other person with the consent of the candidate or his agent, any assistance (other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election, from any person in the service of the Government, the Government of India or the Government of any other State or a local authority.

303. Appeals.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any person aggrieved by an order made by the authorised officer under this Chapter, may, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, appeal to the Director having jurisdiction over the municipal area and who shall dispose of the appeal within a period of ninety days and his decision on such appeal shall be final.

304. Bar to interference by Courts in electoral matters.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act—

(a) the validity of any law relating to the delimitation of constituencies made or purporting to be made under this Act, shall not be called in question in any court;

(b) no election to any municipality shall be called in question except by an election petition presented to the authorised officer and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

305. Power to make rules for conduct of elections.—The Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette and in consultation with the Chief Electoral Officer make rules for the composition of municipalities, conducting the election, allotment of symbols and all matters relating to or in connection with the conduct of elections to the municipalities.

CHAPTER XVIII
MISCELLANEOUS

306. Appointment of Executive Officers/Secretaries in municipalities.— (1) There shall be an Executive Officer in each Municipal Council, Municipal Committee and a Secretary in those municipalities as the Government may describe, who shall be appointed by the Government and shall govern by such conditions of service as may be prescribed by rules under this Act.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Executive Officer and the Secretary, as the case may be, to assist the President of the Municipal Council or Municipal Committee as the case may be, in the discharge of their functions under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.

(3) Save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, the officer referred to in sub-section (1) shall—

(a) exercise all the powers specifically imposed or conferred upon him by or under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force;

(b) lay down the duties of and supervise and control officers and officials holding office under the municipality in accordance with the rules made by the Government;

(c) supervise and control the execution of all works of the municipality;

(d) take necessary measures for the speedy execution of all works and developmental schemes of the municipality;

(e) have custody of common seal and all papers and documents connected with the proceedings of the meetings of the municipality and of its Standing Committees and other Committees;

(f) draw and disburse money out of the municipal fund with the approval of, President;

(g) exercise such other powers and discharge such other functions as may be prescribed;

(h) attend every meeting of the municipality and shall have the right to attend the meeting of any committee thereof and to take part in the discussion but shall not have the right to move any resolution or to vote. If in his opinion any proposal before the municipality is violative of or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or any other law, rule or order made thereunder, it shall be his duty to bring the same to the notice of the Government.

(4). Every person in possession of moneys, accounts, records or other property pertaining to a municipality shall on the requisition for this purpose in writing of the officer referred to in sub-section (1) forthwith hand over such moneys or deliver up such accounts, records or other property to the said officer or the person authorised in the requisition to receive the same.

(5) The Executive Officer shall bring to the notice of the municipality any act or resolution of the municipality which may be in violation of any Government instructions or the provisions of this Act, provided that if such act or omission or the directions of the Government or the provisions of this Act, as the case may be, is not rectified within 15 days of the communication, it shall be the duty of the Executive Officer to bring such omission or violation to the notice of the Government.

307. Posts in municipality and appointments thereto.—(1) Subject to the provisions contained in this Act and any other condition of services prescribed by the Government by notification, the municipality may with the previous approval of the Government or any other officer authorised in this behalf, appoint such officers and servants as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of its duties.

(2) The qualifications, method of recruitment, salaries, leave, allowances and other conditions of service including disciplinary matters of such officers and servants shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The salary, allowance, gratuity, pension, contribution and other payments required to be made in accordance with the conditions of their services, to the officers and officials employed for the discharge of duties of the municipality under this Act shall be charged from the municipal Fund in the prescribed manner.

(4) An officer or official in regular employment of the municipality may in lieu of the Contributory Provident Fund benefits admissible to him under the Jammu and Kashmir Provident Fund Act, Samvat 1998 opt for: service and family pensions and in that event he will be governed by the rules, as are applicable to the employees of the State Government and such a person shall contribute to the General Provident Fund:

Provided that—

(a) the share of the money contribution by the municipality alongwith interest accrued thereon, to the credit of such a person in his

Contributory Provident Fund shall be credited to the Pension and Gratuity Fund; established for this purpose ;

(b) the share of money, alongwith interest accrued thereon, to the credit of such a person in the Contributory Provident Fund on account of his own contribution, shall be transferred to his credit in the General Provident Fund established for the purpose; and any loss caused to the municipality through withdrawals during the service shall be made good by him.

(5) The municipality shall, in relation to such employees who have exercised the option for pension under sub-section (4) shall credit its contributions regularly but not later than fifth day of the month following the month to which the contribution relates, into the pension and gratuity.

(6) The Pension and Gratuity Fund and "General Provident Fund" referred to in sub-section (4) shall be established and maintained by the Director, Urban Local Bodies, Jammu and Kashmir in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the persons, who were in the regular service of any municipality as on April 1998, and have retired, provided they opt for service and family pensions under this section and refund to the Director, within such period as may be specified, the employer's contribution to the Provident Fund including interest received by them from the employer together with simple interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of its withdrawal till the date of repayment, will also be eligible for service and family pension under this Act.

(8) Approval for the creation of posts in a municipality shall be made by the Government after taking into consideration the requirements of the municipality and its financial capacity .

(9) In making appointment to any post referred to in this section, the appointing authority shall follow the instructions issued by the Government from time to time in relation to reservation of appointments or posts for Scheduled Tribes/Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes and for any other category. of persons.

308. Officers and other employees not to be interested in any contract etc., with municipality.—(1) A person shall be disqualified for being appointed in the municipality if he has, directly or indirectly, by himself or by a partner or by any other person, any share or interest in any contract made with, or any work being done for the municipality other than as an employee.

(2) If any such employee acquires, directly or indirectly by himself or by a partner or by any other person, any share or interest in any such contract or work as is referred to in sub-section (1), he shall unless the authority appointing him in any particular case otherwise decides, be liable to be removed from his office by an order of such authority :

Provided that before an order of removal is made such officer or other employee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken in regard to him.

309. Power to enquire and report about misconduct of certain officers or officials.—(1) On a complaint being made to the municipality by any member that an officer or official of the municipality or any other class of Government Officer or official discharging any duties in relation to the functions of the municipality to which the Government may, by notification, extend the provisions of this section has mis-conducted himself in his official capacity, the municipality may enquire into the matter and submit a report alongwith the prima facie evidence to the superior officer whom it may concern, or to the Deputy Commissioner or any other officer appointed by the Government as the case may be, and the said officer shall, after such further enquiry as may be required, take suitable action under intimation to the municipality and the Director.

(2) On the report being made by any member that an officer or official of the municipality or any other class of Government officers or officials discharging any duties in relation to the functions of the municipality, to which the Government may by notification extend the provisions of this section, has failed to perform any duty imposed, upon him by any law or rules, the municipality may, by notice fixing a reasonable period, require him to perform the duty and on his failure to do so, shall report the matter to the superior officer whom it may concern, or to the Deputy Commissioner and the said officer shall, after such enquiry as may be required, take suitable action under intimation to the municipality and the Director.

310. power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions thereof which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty :

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of two years from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid on the Table of the Legislative Assembly.

311. Repeal and saving.— (1) On and from the date of commencement of this Act, the Jammu and Kashmir Municipal Act, Samvat 2008 and Town Area Act, Samvat 2011 (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Act) shall stand repealed :

Provided that the repeal shall not effect—

(a) the previous operation of the repealed Acts, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired accrued, or incurred under the repealed Acts; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the repealed Acts; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act has not been enforced :

Provided further that subject to the proceeding proviso anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification, notice, order, instruction or direction issued, rule, regulation, bye-laws made, or scheme framed, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted, registration affected tax imposed or fee or rate levied) under the repealed Act shall in so far as it is in force immediately before the coming into force of this Act and is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act and shall continue to be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.

(2) The arrangement existing for the municipalities under the repealed Acts shall continue until the corresponding municipality is constituted under this Act.
